Team-Record Home Runs in 2008

April 27, 2008 • Ivy League South Title

<< Princeton entered the day needing a doubleheader sweep of Cornell to avoid a one-game playoff and gain a berth in the Ivy League Championship Series. After the Tigers fell behind 7-1 in the third inning of game one, Kathryn Welch and Megan Weidrick homered to bring Princeton within 7-6 after four innings.

Princeton was down again 11-6 heading into the last of >> the sixth, when Kathryn Welch hit a grand slam and Jamie Lettire a hit two-run shot to give Princeton a 12-11 winning margin.

<< The Tigers were down 5-4 in game two heading into the bottom of the seventh. Kathryn Welch tied it with a solo home run and Jamie Lettire won it in walk-off style.

May 3, 2008 • Ivy League Championship Series

A best-of-three series against Harvard was all that stood >> between the Tigers and their eighth NCAA tournament bid. Megan Weidrick closed a 2-0 deficit with a two-run home run in the third inning of game one.

<< When Brittney Scott came up with the final out in game one, Princeton had a 4-2 victory and was one win away from the NCAAs.

Jamie Lettire could celebrate after hitting a three-run >> home run in the first inning of game two and catching the final out of a 5-1 win that gave the Tigers the Ivy League title.
