Eye on the Tigers

Princeton is 2-1 on the season and most recently defeated Lehigh 69-52, delivering the Mountain Hawks their first loss on their home court since the 2007-08 season. The Tigers opened the season with a 41-point victory over Fairleigh Dickinson and lost at the buzzer to Rutgers on the road, 54-53. Sophomore Niveen Rasheed, the Ivy League Player of the Week, leads the Tigers in scoring with 13.7 points and in rebounds with 8.3 boards per game. She also leads the team in steals with eight and assists with nine. Junior Devona Allgood adds 13.3 points and 7.0 rebounds per game and leads the team in blocks with five. Senior co-captain Addie Micir contributes 11.7 points per game and has hit nine three pointers. The Tigers are shooting 41.9 percent from the field, 32.7 percent from long range and 64.9 percent from the free-throw line. Princeton has a +19 scoring margin and a +6.3 rebounding margin over its opponents this season.

The Princeton vs. the Tournament

This will be the first meeting between Princeton and USC. Princeton has also never played Quinnipiac, but has played Vanderbilt three times. The Tigers are 0-3 against the Commodores. This is Princeton's second trip to the Vanderbilt Tournament. The team came South in 2003 and went 1-1 against Louisville and Samford.

Scouting the Trojans

USC is 3-1 on the season and most recently defeated Georgia 71-63 on Tuesday. The squad also defeated Long Beach State and Gonzaga to open the season. All three wins have come at home. It's lone loss was to No. 5/6 Duke, 75-50. Five players are in double digits led by Briana Gilbreath's 12.3 points per game. She is second on the team in rebounds with 7.0 per game, while leading the team in steals with nine and blocks with four. Jacki Gemelos adds 12 points per game and Ashley Corral contributes 11. The pair are also the team leaders in assists with 14 and 12, respectively. Both Cassie Harberts and Christine Marinacci are scoring 10.5 points per game. Marinacci leads the team under the basket with 8.5 rebounds per game. Gilbreath, Gemelos and Corral will all shoot the three, with Gemelos hitting 50 percent of her shots from long range. Harberts has been fouled by far the most on the team, and has shot 16 for 20 from the line. The Trojans shot 42.7 percent from the floor, 35.4 percent from long range and 64.3 percent from the free-throw line. The team averages 70.5 points per game, a +2.8 scoring margin over its opponents and has a -1.5 rebounding margin.

She's Got It

Niveen Rasheed was named the Ivy League Player of the Week on Monday, Nov. 22. On Thursday at Rutgers, Rasheed scored 14 points and added seven rebounds against the Scarlet Knights, who received votes in both the preseason AP Poll and ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll. She added three steals and one assist. Rasheed recorded her first double-double of the season in Princeton's 69-52 win over Lehigh, then ranked No. 18 in the CollegeInsider.com Mid Major Top 25. The victory halted Lehigh's 33-game home win streak as Princeton is the first team to win at Stabler Arena since the 2007-08 season. Rasheed scored 13 points and added 10 rebounds. She also led the team in steals with four and in assists with four. Rasheed finished the week with 27 points, 17 rebounds, seven steals and five assists.

It's All Good

Junior Devona Allgood was named the Ivy League Player of the Week on Monday, Nov. 15. Allgood shares the honor with Harvard's Brogan Berry. Allgood led Princeton in scoring as the Tigers opened the season with a 78-37 win over Fairleigh Dickinson on Saturday, Nov. 13. The junior center scored 20 points, just one point shy of her career best. In addition she added seven rebounds, three blocks, three steals and one assist coming in 24 minutes of play.

Honey I'm Home

Princeton is in the middle of a 10-game home winning streak, dating back to Dec. 12, 2009. The Tigers set a record for wins at home last season going 12-1 on its home court. Princeton's last loss at home was its only loss at home last year, a 60-50 game to Rutgers.

On the Road Again

Princeton is 1-1 on the road this season, falling by one point to Rutgers and defeating Lehigh by 17. Last year, Princeton went 14-1 on the road, with its lone loss at UCLA. Princeton is in the middle of a five-game road swing with three more games to play away from Jadwin Gym.

Open Sesame

All-time Princeton is 19-21 in season openers including this season's 78-37 win over FDU. The Tigers have won the last three season openers, and is 6-4 in the last 10 years.

O Captain! My Captain!

The team has selected its two seniors to be team captains this season. Krystal Hill and Addie Micir were announced as captains at the end-of-year banquet in the spring of 2010.

Hey Rookie

Coach Banghart and her staff have brought in three newcomers as the Class of 2014. Joining the Tigers are local forward Kristen Helmstetter (Bridgewater, N.J./Bridgewater-Raritan), and guards Nicole Hung (Los Angeles, Calif./Harvard Westlake) and Alex Rodgers (Mouth of Wilson, Va./Oak Hill Academy). HoopGurlz ranked both Hung and Rodgers. Below are their ranks below in comparison to Niveen Rasheed who was ranked last season.

Nicole Hung - Scouts Grade: 90 - Position Rank: 29

Alex Rodgers - Scouts Grade: 80 - Position Rank: 109

compare

Niveen Rasheed - Scouts Grade: 90 - Position Rank: 20

We Are The Champions

Princeton won the Ivy League in 2009-10, the program's eighth title. The team won five times in the 1970 and 80s prior to the NCAA Tournament. The Tigers earned a share of the title in 1999 and 2006 but lost the playoff game both years to Dartmouth. It marks the first time Princeton won the title outright since 1978.

Can They Go All The Way?

Princeton went undefeated in the Ivy League last season becoming one of six teams to go undefeated in Ivy League play. Harvard did so in 2002-03 and 96-97 and Penn was undefeated in 2000-01. Dartmouth went 7-0 in 1980-81, Yale went 7-0 in 1979-80. Princeton is in the middle of a 19-game winning streak in the Ivy League that dates back to Feb. 27, 2009.

Going Dancing

Princeton made its first ever NCAA Tournament appearance in 2010. The team became a varsity sport in 1972 with the NCAA Tournament beginning a decade later in 1982. The Tigers fell to St. John's in the Tallahassee first round 65-47.

We're on the Air

Live audio broadcasts are available for almost every Princeton women's basketball game this season, with Derek Jones calling the action. All home games will be webcast via GoPrincetonTigers.tv for registered users. Packages are available for purchase on a monthly, semi-annual or annual subscription. Live stats will also be available for all home games, and most away games. Links will be available on the women's basketball schedule page.

Not Just a Dot Com

Princeton fans now have many ways to follow their teams. Besides www.GoPrincetonTigers.com, fans can check out the Tigers' TV site, www.GoPrincetonTigers.tv for various types of videos including: interviews with student-athletes and coaches, alumni profiles, game highlights, etc. You can also check out TigerBlog, the official blog of Princeton Athletics, that gives fans a different take on our teams; and TigerCast, a weekly podcast featuring Princeton coaches and student-athletes.

Wednesdays on the Web

Each Wednesday during the season a video bio/interview will be released on GoPrincetonTigers.tv. Check out the Web each Wednesday to get to know each of our 13 Tigers a bit better.

Through the Eyes of the Tigers

The Princeton women's basketball team has a new Web site feature for the 2010-11 season, entitled Through the Eyes of the Tigers. Every other Tuesday a different player on the team will give you an inside look at what's been going on lately with the team. From practice, conditioning, team activities, classes, etc.

Follow Us on Facebook & Twitter

Princeton women's basketball has a fan page on Facebook called "Princeton Women's Basketball Alumni". In what started as a women's basketball alumni page, the page is now open to friends and fans of the basketball program. Coach Banghart also has her own Twitter page. Follow Coach at <http://twitter.com/coachbanghart>

The Coming Attractions

The Tigers will travel to Delaware on Dec. 1 to complete a five-game road swing. Tip off against the Blue Hens is at 7 p.m.

GAME #1 FDU 37 AT PRINCETON 78

PRINCETON, N.J. (11/13/10) - It was a banner night at Jadwin Gym for the Princeton women's basketball team as the Tigers defeated Fairleigh Dickinson 78-37 in the 2010-11 season opener.

Prior to the game the team unveiled its first NCAA Tournament banner after going 26-3 in 2009-10 and earning the Ivy League's automatic bid with a perfect 14-0 mark.

Princeton played all 13 members of the team with 12 players scoring. Three players were in double digits led by junior Devona Allgood's 20 points. She added seven rebounds, three blocks, three steals and one assist coming in 24 minutes of play. Sophomore Niveen Rasheed added 14 points, eight rebounds, four assists and one steal. Senior Addie Micir scored 12 points, hitting four three pointers and chipping in three assists, two steals and a rebound. Princeton shot 42.6 percent from the floor and missed just two of its 17 free throws.

Esther Wallace led the Knights with 13 points, while adding five rebounds and two blocks. Jasmira Saunders had a team-best six rebounds and four steals while scoring five points. Mariyah Laury chipped in six points. As a team FDU shot 26 percent from the floor and 58.8 percent from the line.

The Tigers grabbed a 10-point lead, 19-9, at 12:48. During that time Allgood scored eight of those 19 points with Micir draining two of her four three pointers. Princeton continued to find the net scoring the next six points to make it 25-9 with a little more than nine minutes to play in the half.

The Knights were able to make it an 11-point game on three occasions including at the 1:55 mark of the first. However the Tigers would close out the first half on a 9-0 run to head into the locker room with a 39-20 lead.

Princeton's run wasn't over yet as the Tigers came out in the second and scored 17 straight points to go up 56-20 at 15:12.

A three-point basket by Alannah Driscoll-Sbar ended the drought for FDU at 12:58.

The Knights would only get within 30 points during the remainder of the game with came around the 10-minute mark. Back up by 36 points with 1:41 to play Princeton finished scoring the last seven points to wrap up the game 78-37.

Princeton will be on the road for the next five games first stopping off at Rutgers on Thursday, Nov. 18 for 7:30 p.m.

GAME #2 PRINCETON 53 AT RUTGERS 54

The banner of Hall-of-Fame coach Vivian Stringer looms over the court at the Lewis Brown Athletic Center, and the real-life version is still doing business on the home side bench. Clearly, this is not a place where visitors go home often with victories.

Two years ago to the day, after her team was a 48-point afterthought on this court, Courtney Banghart looked around and said that she'd back. She just didn't realize it would sting even more the second time around.

Khadrijah Rushdan knocked down a jump shot with a 4.4 seconds left to give Rutgers a 54-53 win over Princeton in an early-season thriller in front of 2,518 at the RAC. Princeton rallied from 15 points back in the second half to take a lead down the stretch before Rushdan broke the Tigers' hearts.

The loss was Princeton's 14th straight to the Scarlet Knights, with the last Princeton win back in 1978. Rutgers improved to 104-16 in the last nine seasons at home.

Among those 104 wins was an 83-35 win over Princeton exactly two years ago.

That loss two years ago left Banghart at 8-24 in her young coaching career. Since then, she is 40-17, and her team is 22-2 since a 10-point loss to the Scarlet Knights a year ago, when she led Princeton to a 14-0 Ivy record and the first NCAA tournament bid in school history.

This year, Princeton came in off a 41-point win over FDU in its opener, while Rutgers lost to California by nine and No. 2 Stanford by 13 to open its season.

Rutgers led 35-22 at the half and 39-24 with 18 minutes to go before Princeton turned its game up on both ends. It took four minutes to get the lead under double digits and then just three more for Princeton to get its first lead at 42-41.

It would go back-and-forth from there with eight lead changes down the stretch, and Princeton would take a 53-52 lead on the seventh of those, when Lauren Edwards scored with 1:13 left.

The Tigers would get a stop after that, but the final sequence was set up when Niveen Rasheed's jumper hit the rim and bounded to the floor, where a mad scramble ensued. A held ball would have favored Princeton at that point, but the officials ruled that Chelsey Lee of Rutgers had possession and had called for a timeout before the ball was tied up.

As a result, the Knights had a chance to win the game, and Rushdan took full advantage, swishing a mid-range shot with 4.4 to play. Princeton was unable to get a shot off after that before the horn.

Rasheed led Princeton with 14 points and added seven rebounds, while Edwards and Addie Micir had 11 each. Devona Allgood had eight points and eight rebounds, adn Kate Miller came off the bench to spark the comeback with seven points while drawing two key charges.

Rushdan led RU with 13. Rutgers shot 52% for the first half while making 4 of 5 three-pointers, but Princeton held the Knights to 23% shooting and 0 for 4 on three-pointers in the second half.

Princeton shot 32% in the first half and 45% in the second half, but the Tigers came away with 12 offensive rebounds and nine second-chance points after intermission.

Rutgers now leads the series with the Tigers either 15-1 or 15-3, depending on whether two early 1970s games against Douglgas are counted. There is no disputing the current series streak, which now stands at 14 for the Scarlet Knights.

Of those 14 wins, six have been by at least 20 points and four have been by at least 40. The Scarlet Knights scored 110 against Princeton a year after the last Tiger win and 116 the year after that.

Those games - like the 48-point RU win two years ago - are just numbers in the record book now.

The one-point loss this time around stings, but it does show how far the Tigers have come in a short time.

GAME #3 PRINCETON AT LEHIGH

BETHLEHEM, Pa. (11/21/10) - Lehigh's 33-game home winning streak is over. The Princeton women's basketball team delivered the Mountain Hawks their first loss at Stabler Arena since the 2007-08 season with a 69-52 game.

Four players were in double digits, led by sophomore Niveen Rasheed's first double-double of the season with 13 points and 10 rebounds. She added four steals and four assists. Juniors Devona Allgood and Laura Johnson and senior Addie Micir had 12 points apiece. Allgood added six rebounds, four steals, three assists and two blocks. Sophomore Lauren Polansky chipped in six rebounds, two steals and two points, junior Lauren Edwards had nine points, six rebounds and three assists.

Princeton took a seven-point lead 9-2 five minutes into the game, but an 8-0 Lehigh run over the next two minutes gave the Mountain Hawks a one-point lead, 10-9.
