Eye on the Tigers

Princeton is 3-2 on the season and will be playing its third game in five days on Wednesday at Delaware. The Tigers went 1-1 at the Vanderbilt Tournament, defeating USC 60-59 and nearly knocking off No. 22/24 Vanderbilt 74-68. Three players are scoring in double figures led by sophomore Niveen Rasheed with 14.8 points per game. She also leads the team in rebounds with 7.4 boards per game, assists with 16 and steals with 11. Senior co-captain Addie Micir adds 13 points per game and is shooting 100 percent from the free-throw line and 40.5 percent from long range with 17 three's on the season. Sophomore Devona Allgood contributes 11.6 points per game and is second on the team in rebounds with 7.0 rebounds per game. She leads the team in blocks with eight and is second on the team in steals with eight. The Tigers are shooting 40.6 percent from the floor, 34.6 percent from behind the arc and 73.5 percent from the line. Princeton has a +10.4 scoring margin and a +2.8 rebounding margin over its opponents.

The Princeton/Delaware Series

Delaware leads the all-time series with Princeton 14-6. Princeton won last year's meeting a 68-59 game at Jadwin Gym. It was the first time the teams had met in eight years but ended a six-game Blue Hen winning streak in the series. Princeton has won just twice in Newark, Del., in 1994 and 1995.

Scouting the Blue Hens

Delaware is 5-0 on the season with its biggest win being a seven-point victory over Villanova on Nov. 16. The Blue Hens recently defeated La Salle, 59-48 on the road. Delaware averages 66.8 points per game and has a +13.4 scoring margin. They are shooting 41.9 percent from the floor, 43.6 percent from long range and 77.9 percent from the free-throw line. The team has a +17.0 rebounding margin over its opponents, pulling down 46.4 boards per game and holding teams to 29.4. Elena Delle Donne leads the team in scoring with a dominant 27.4 points per game. She adds 7.4 rebounds per game, has nine assists, eight blocks and three steals. Delle Donne has missed just two of her 32 free throws for a 93.8 percentage from the line. She has also hit 11 three's for a 61.1 percentage from long range. Danielle Parker and Sarah Acker both add 9.0 points per game apiece. Parker leads the team on the glass with 10.6 rebounds per game, while Acker has a team-high 10 blocks. Lauren Carra, who averages 8.2 points per game is the team's assist leader with 15. Jaquetta May has a team-best eight steals off the bench.

Mad for Micir

Addie Micir was named the Ivy League co-Player of the Week on Monday, Nov. 29 after leading Princeton to a 1-1 record at the Vanderbilt Tournament, stunning the USC and nearly knocking off No. 22/24 Vanderbilt. Micir scored both free throws with 5.0 seconds left to lift Princeton the 60-59 win over USC. She finished the game with 10 points, two rebounds, two assists and a steal against the Trojans, a team receiving votes in both national polls. The Tigers nearly defeated the Commodores, falling 74-68, after battling back from a 10-point deficit to take the lead in the second half. With 40 seconds to play Princeton has down by just three. Micir led the team in scoring with a season-high 20 points. She shot 6-for-13 from long range, matching her career best of six three-pointers in the game, but this time all six game in a single half. Micir added three rebounds, one assist, one block and one steal. Micir was named to the five-member All-Tournament team for the her efforts this weekend.

She's Got It

Niveen Rasheed was named the Ivy League Player of the Week on Monday, Nov. 22. On Thursday at Rutgers, Rasheed scored 14 points and added seven rebounds against the Scarlet Knights, who received votes in both the preseason AP Poll and ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll. She added three steals and one assist. Rasheed recorded her first double-double of the season in Princeton's 69-52 win over Lehigh, then ranked No. 18 in the CollegelInsider.com Mid Major Top 25. The victory halted Lehigh's 33-game home win streak as Princeton is the first team to win at Stabler Arena since the 2007-08 season. Rasheed

It's All Good

Junior Devona Allgood was named the Ivy League Player of the Week on Monday, Nov. 15. Allgood shares the honor with Harvard's Brogan Berry. Allgood led Princeton in scoring as the Tigers opened the season with a 78-37 win over Fairleigh Dickinson on Saturday, Nov. 13. The junior center scored 20 points, just one point shy of her career best. In addition she added seven rebounds, three blocks, three steals and one assist coming in 24 minutes of play.

Nash - What?

Princeton went 1-1 at the Vanderbilt Tournament during the Thanksgiving week. Senior Addie Micir scored both free throws with 5.0 seconds left to lift Princeton the 60-59 win over USC, a team at the time was receiving votes in both national polls. It marked the program's first ever win against a Pac-10 team. The Tigers faced the host school in the championship game. The Commodores, who are unbeaten in their 12-year history of their Thanksgiving Tournament, is the first ranked opponent Princeton has played this season. The Tigers nearly defeated the Commodores, falling 74-68, after battling back from a 10-point deficit to take the lead in the second half. With 40 seconds to play Princeton has down by just three.

Picking on the Pac-10

Princeton's 60-59 win over USC on Friday, Nov. 26 at the Vanderbilt Tournament marked the program's first win over a Pac-10 team. The Tigers are now 1-5 against the conference from the West Coast

Team	Record	Last Meeting

Down But Not Out

Princeton has battled back from double-digit deficits twice this season to make it a game until the very end. The Tigers were down by as much 15 to Rutgers in the second half, before battling back to take the lead with 6:24 on the clock. Holding the lead with for the final minute, Rutgers hit a jumper with 4.3 seconds to win the one-point game, 54-53. Princeton was down by as much as nine to Vanderbilt but came back to take the lead with 11:59 to play in the game. Nine minutes later, Princeton found themselves in a 10-point hole with 2:57 remaining in the game, but quickly made it a three-point game. With 40 second to play it was a one-possession game, before Vanderbilt scored three free-throws to win 74-68.

The Fine Five

Princeton returns its entire starting line-up this season and hasn't changed it's starting rotation this season. This season they have scored 252 of the squad's 328 points for 76.8 percent of the points. Last year Princeton's starting five accounted for 74.8 percent of the team's points, scoring 1535 of 2051.

That Was a Close One

Three of Princeton's five games this season have been decided by six or fewer points, with two being one-points games. The Tigers fell to Rutgers by one, defeated USC by one and lost to Vanderbilt by just six. Princeton's other two victories were decided by 17 points (Lehigh) and 41 points (FDU).

All About the Boards

Princeton is 2-0 when outrebounding its opponents. When the opponent has more rebounds, Princeton hasn't won a game, going 0-2. The Tigers average 38.6 rebounds per game, a +2.8 margin over its opponents.

Rocking the Vote

Princeton received a vote in the USA Today/ESPN Coaches' preseason poll. The Tigers had four votes in the final poll last season and earned as many as 28 last year. This marks the first time an Ivy team has been listed in that particular preseason poll (Harvard earned votes in the 2002-03 preseason AP Poll).

November Numbers

Princeton finished off the month of November with a 3-2 record. Last season, Princeton set a program record for the most wins during the month of November, going 4-1.

December Digits

Princeton will play eight games during the final month of the calendar year. Last season, the squad went 6-1, the best record the squad has had in program history. The previous best was during the 1974-75 season when the team went 7-2.

Honey I'm Home

Princeton is in the middle of a 10-game home winning streak, dating back to Dec. 12, 2009. The Tigers set a record for wins at home last season going 12-1 on its home court. Princeton's last loss at home was its only loss at home last year, a 60-50 game to Rutgers.

On the Road Again

Princeton is 2-2 on the road this season, defeating USC and Lehigh. The Tigers lost to Rutgers and Vanderbilt. Last year, Princeton went 14-1 on the road, with its lone loss at UCLA. Four non-conference road games remain on the schedule: Delaware, St. Joseph's, Davidson and Wake Forest.

Open Sesame

All-time Princeton is 19-21 in season openers including this season's 78-37 win over FDU. The Tigers have won the last three season openers, and is 6-4 in the last 10 years.

Preseason Prediction

Princeton was selected to win the Ivy League again this season in the 2010 Ivy League Preseason Media/SID Poll. The Tigers were nearly the unanimous first-place selection with 135 points and 16 first-place votes. Harvard received one first-place vote and 115 points as the runner-up. Dartmouth was picked third with 96 points, followed by Yale with 84, Columbia with 73, Brown with 50, Cornell with 39 and Penn with 19.

O Captain! My Captain!

The team has selected its two seniors to be team captains this season. Krystal Hill and Addie Micir were announced as captains at the end-of-year banquet in the spring of 2010.

Hey Rookie

Coach Banghart and her staff have brought in three newcomers as the Class of 2014. Joining the Tigers are local forward Kristen Helmstetter (Bridgewater, N.J./Bridgewater-Raritan), and guards Nicole Hung (Los Angeles, Calif./Harvard Westlake) and Alex Rodgers (Mouth of Wilson, Va./Oak Hill Academy). HoopGurlz ranked both Hung and Rodgers. Below are their ranks below in comparison to Niveen Rasheed who was ranked last season.

Nicole Hung - Scouts Grade: 90 - Position Rank: 29

compare

Niveen Rasheed - Scouts Grade: 90 - Position Rank: 20

We Are The Champions

Princeton won the Ivy League in 2009-10, the program's eighth title. The team won five times in the 1970 and 80s prior to the NCAA Tournament. The Tigers earned a share of the title in 1999 and 2006 but lost the playoff game both years to Dartmouth. It marks the first time Princeton won the title outright since 1978.

Can They Go All The Way?

Princeton went undefeated in the Ivy League last season becoming one of six teams to go undefeated in Ivy League play. Harvard did so in 2002-03 and 96-97 and Penn was undefeated in 2000-01. Dartmouth went 7-0 in 1980-81, Yale went 7-0 in 1979-80. Princeton is in the middle of a 19-game winning streak in the Ivy League that dates back to Feb. 27, 2009.

Going Dancing

Princeton made its first ever NCAA Tournament appearance in 2010. The team became a varsity sport in 1972 with the NCAA Tournament beginning a decade later in 1982. The Tigers fell to St. John's in the Tallahassee first round 65-47.

Through the Eyes of the Tigers

The Princeton women's basketball team has a new Web site feature for the 2010-11 season, entitled Through the Eyes of the Tigers. Every other Tuesday a different player on the team will give you an inside look at what's been going on lately with the team. From practice, conditioning, team activities, classes, etc.

Follow Us on Facebook & Twitter

Princeton women's basketball has a fan page on Facebook called "Princeton Women's Basketball Alumni". In what started as a women's basketball alumni page, the page is now open to friends and fans of the basketball program. Coach Banghart also has her own Twitter page. Follow Coach at <http://twitter.com/coachbanghart>

The Coming Attractions

Princeton will return home for the first time since the home opener on Nov. 13 when it hosts Rider on Sunday, Dec. 5. Tip-off is at 2 p.m. It will be the first of four straight home games for the Tigers.

GAME #1 FDU 37 AT PRINCETON 78

PRINCETON, N.J. (11/13/10) - It was a banner night at Jadwin Gym for the Princeton women's basketball team as the Tigers defeated Fairleigh Dickinson 78-37 in the 2010-11 season opener.

Prior to the game the team unveiled its first NCAA Tournament banner after going 26-3 in 2009-10 and earning the Ivy League's automatic bid with a perfect 14-0 mark.

Princeton played all 13 members of the team with 12 players scoring. Three players were in double digits led by junior Devona Allgood's 20 points. She added seven rebounds, three blocks, three steals and one assist coming in 24 minutes of play. Sophomore Niveen Rasheed added 14 points, eight rebounds, four assists and one steal. Senior Addie Micir scored 12 points, hitting four three pointers and chipping in three assists, two steals and a rebound. Princeton shot 42.6 percent from the floor and missed just two of its 17 free throws.

Esther Wallace led the Knights with 13 points, while adding five rebounds and two blocks. Jasmrya Saunder had a team-best six rebounds and four steals while scoring five points. Mariyah Laury chipped in six points. As a team FDU shot 26 percent from the floor and 58.8 percent from the line.

The Tigers grabbed a 10-point lead, 19-9, at 12:48. During that time Allgood scored eight of those 19 points with Micir draining two of her four three pointers. Princeton continued to find the net scoring the next six points to make it 25-9 with a little more than nine minutes to play in the half.

The Knights were able to make it an 11-point game on three occasions including at the 1:55 mark of the first. However the Tigers would close out the first half on a 9-0 run to head into the locker room with a 39-20 lead.

Princeton's run wasn't over yet as the Tigers came out in the second and scored 17 straight points to go up 56-20 at 15:12.

A three-point basket by Alannah Driscoll-Sbar ended the drought for FDU at 12:58.

The Knights would only get within 30 points during the remainder of the game with came around the 10-minute mark. Back up by 36 points with 1:41 to play Princeton finished scoring the last seven points to wrap up the game 78-37.

Princeton will be on the road for the next five games first stopping off at Rutgers on Thursday, Nov. 18 for 7:30 p.m.

GAME #2 PRINCETON 53 AT RUTGERS 54

The banner of Hall-of-Fame coach Vivian Stringer looms over the court at the Lewis Brown Athletic Center, and the real-life version is still doing business on the home side bench. Clearly, this is not a place where visitors go home often with victories.

Two years ago to the day, after her team was a 48-point afterthought on this court, Courtney Banghart looked around and said that she'd back. She just didn't realize it would sting even more the second time around.

Khadijah Rushdan knocked down a jump shot with a 4.4 seconds left to give Rutgers a 54-53 win over Princeton in an early-season thriller in front of 2,518 at the RAC. Princeton rallied from 15 points back in the second half to take a lead down the stretch before Rushdan broke the Tigers' hearts.

The loss was Princeton's 14th straight to the Scarlet Knights, with the last Princeton win back in 1978. Rutgers improved to 104-16 in the last nine seasons at home.

Among those 104 wins was an 83-35 win over Princeton exactly two years ago.

That loss two years ago left Banghart at 8-24 in her young coaching career. Since then, she is 40-7, and her team is 22-2 since a 10-point loss to the Scarlet Knights a year ago, when she led Princeton to a 14-0 Ivy record and the first NCAA tournament bid in school history.

This year, Princeton came in off a 41-point win over FDU in its opener, while Rutgers lost to California by nine and No. 2 Stanford by 13 to open its season.

Rutgers led 35-22 at the half and 39-24 with 18 minutes to go before Princeton turned its game up on both ends. It took four minutes to get the lead under double digits and then just three more for Princeton to get its first lead at 42-41.

It would go back-and-forth from there with eight lead changes down the stretch, and Princeton would take a 53-52 lead on the seventh of those, when Lauren Edwards scored with 1:13 left.

The Tigers would get a stop after that, but the final sequence was set up when Niveen Rasheed's jumper hit the rim and bounded to the floor, where a mad scramble ensued. A held ball would have favored Princeton at that point, but the officials ruled that Chelsey Lee of Rutgers had possession and had called for a timeout before the ball was tied up.

As a result, the Knights had a chance to win the game, and Rushdan took full advantage, swishing a mid-range shot with 4.4 to play. Princeton was unable to get a shot off after that before the horn.

Rasheed led Princeton with 14 points and added seven rebounds, while Edwards and Addie Micir had 11 each. Devona Allgood had eight points and eight rebounds, and Kate Miller came off the bench to spark the comeback with seven points while drawing two key charges.

Rushdan led RU with 13. Rutgers shot 52% for the first half while making 4 of 5 three-pointers, but Princeton held the Knights to 23% shooting and 0 for 4 on three-pointers in the second half.

Princeton shot 32% in the first half and 45% in the second half, but the Tigers came away with 12 offensive rebounds and nine second-chance points after intermission.

Rutgers now leads the series with the Tigers either 15-1 or 15-3, depending on whether two early 1970s games against Douglass are counted. There is no disputing the current series streak, which now stands at 14 for the Scarlet Knights.

Of those 14 runs, six have been by at least 20 points and four have been by at least 40. The Scarlet Knights scored 110 against Princeton a year after the last Tiger win and 116 the year after that.

Those games - like the 48-point RU win two years ago - are just numbers in the record book now.

The one-point loss this time around stings, but it does show how far the Tigers have come in a short time.

GAME #3 PRINCETON 69 AT LEHIGH 52

BETHLEHEM, Pa. (11/21/10) - Lehigh's 33-game home winning streak is over. The Princeton women's basketball team delivered the Mountain Hawks their first loss at Stabler Arena since the 2007-08 season with a 69-52 game.

Four players were in double digits, led by sophomore Niveen Rasheed's first double-double of the season with 13 points and 10 rebounds. She added four steals and four assists. Juniors Devona Allgood and Laura Johnson and senior Addie Micir had 12 points apiece. Allgood added six rebounds, four steals, three assists and two blocks. Sophomore Lauren Polansky chipped in six rebounds, two steals and two points, junior Lauren Edwards had nine points, six rebounds and three assists.

Princeton took a seven-point lead 9-2 five minutes into the game, but an 8-0 Lehigh run over the next two minutes gave the Mountain Hawks a one-point lead, 10-9.

The teams would exchange leads five times over the next six minutes before a Laura Johnson three-pointer at 7:31 gave Princeton a two-point lead it wouldn't relinquish, sending the Tigers on a 20-5 run over the next five minutes.

Down by 14, 38-24, Lehigh would shoot 4-for-4 from the line and wasn't allowed a field goal for the final 3:41, to close out the half with a 10-point deficit on its home court.

The Tigers continued to build on their lead with freshman Nicole Hung giving Princeton a 20-point edge on a jumper at 7:34. Lehigh went on an 8-0 run over the next 1:23 to get within 14, 61-47, with just under six minutes to play. It would be as close as the Mountain Hawks would get as Princeton would close out the half on an 8-5 run for the 69-52 final score.

Of Lehigh's nine baskets from the field in the second half, five were three-pointers.

The Hun School product Emily Gratch paced the Mountain Hawks with 14 points, shooting a perfect 5-for-5 from the field. She added three steals and three blocks. Leading scorer Erica Prosser added 11 points, five rebounds and a team-high seven assists. Leading the team under the basket was Courtney Dentler who pulled down seven boards, while adding seven points and a team-best three blocks. Lehigh shot 41.3 percent from the floor (19-46), 60 percent from the line and 36.4 percent from behind the arc.

Princeton shot 43.3 percent from the floor (29-67), 50 percent from long range and 44.4 percent from the free-throw line. The Tigers outrebounded the opponent 43-28.

The Tigers improve to 2-1 on the season and will play in the Vanderbilt Tournament over Thanksgiving break to continue their five-game road swing. First up Princeton will meet with USC on Friday, Nov. 26 at 7 p.m.

GAME #4

USC 59 vs. PRINCETON 60

NASHVILLE (11/26/10) - With her team up 59-58, USC's Cassie Harbets fouled the wrong Princeton basketball player - the team's best free-throw shooter, senior captain Addie Micir. Micir hit both of her free throws with five seconds left to give the Tigers a 60-59 victory over the Trojans on Friday, Nov. 26 at Memorial Gymnasium in the second game of the Vanderbilt Tournament.

USC would fumble down the court due to high pressure from guard Laura Johnson and didn't have enough time to get a decent shot off as Princeton celebrated on the opposite end of the court.

Princeton will play in the championship game against the host school Vanderbilt on Sunday, Nov. 28 at 2 p.m. The game will be webstreamed, with live audio and live stats available. Check back tomorrow for links as well as video footage of the win.

It was a back and forth affair in the first half. The lead changed hands six times and was tied four times. USC scored first but Princeton would take it's first lead on a Niveen Rasheed three-point play at 15:38, 5-4.

USC would regain the lead on a pair of free throws by Christina Marinacci and would go up by four, 11-7, before Princeton battled back to take the lead 14-13 when Rasheed stole the ball and ran down the court for a jumper in the lane.

USC scored the next five points, 18-14, but Princeton answered with seven straight with Rasheed scoring twice and Micir draining a three, to give the Tigers their largest lead of the half, 21-18.

The Trojans went on a 14-3 over the next 5:16 to take the 32-24 lead with 2:35 to play. Sophomore center Meg Bowen added two baskets to inch Princeton within four to head into the locker room with a 32-28 score.

At the end of the half both teams had committed eight turnovers, but it was the Tigers that capitalized getting 10 points off of them compared to USC's six.

The Women of Troy started the second half on a 9-5 run to regain an eight-point lead, 41-33 at 15:59. Rasheed scored the game's next six points, going 4-for-4 from the free-throw line and adding a jumper to make it a two-point game, 41-39 at 13:48. A pair of free throws by Harbets ended Rasheed's run but Bowen drew a charge on a jumper in the paint and made good on the three-point play to make it a one-point game, 43-42 with 11 minutes to play.

Ashley Corral and Marinacci teamed up to score the next six points to make it a 49-42 game. A free-throw by Lauren Edwards, followed by a basket by Rasheed after getting the offensive rebound on Edward's second free throw, and a basket in the paint by Allgood put Princeton back within two with seven minutes left.

A minute later the Tigers remained down by two, 53-51, before Marinacci and Harbets added four points. Princeton's Allgood responded going 2-for-2 and adding a basket to make it a 57-55 game with a little more than three minutes left.

Harbets followed with a basket before Edwards earned a steal and raced down the court for a layup. Harbets fouled Rasheed, who made the back end of the two shots to get Princeton within one with 1:08 to play.

The Trojans missed two three-pointers with Edwards getting the second rebound to give Princeton possession with 26 seconds. Bringing the ball down the court, Rasheed drove to the basket but missed the shot with Kari LaPlante getting the defensive rebound and a chance at two baskets as Rasheed was called for the foul.

LaPlante missed both shots and Johnson got the defensive board with 14 seconds to play.

Key to Princeton's success in the second half was its rebounding. USC had a 25-17 edge in boards in the first half, the most rebounds the Tigers have allowed in a half this season. The Tigers outboarded the Trojans 28-20 in the second half. Princeton also got 12 points on second-chance opportunities.

Allgood recorded her first double-double of the season with 12 points and 11 rebounds. Rasheed led the team in scoring with 18 points and had six rebounds, three assists and two steals. Edwards added seven points and 10 rebounds, while Micir contributed 10 points. As a team Princeton shot 32.8 percent from the floor, 80 percent from the line and 26.7 percent from long range.

GAME #5

PRINCETON 68 AT VANDERBILT 74

NASHVILLE (11/28/10) - The Princeton women's basketball team gave No. 22/24 Vanderbilt a game all the way to the end, but it was the Commodores who earned the 74-68 win in the championship game of the Vanderbilt Tournament on Sunday, Nov. 28 at Memorial Gym.

Down by as much as nine, Princeton battled its way back to take the lead midway through the second and continued to answer any scoring runs against the first ranked opponent it has played this season. Down by 10 with less than three minutes to play Princeton made it a three-point game and challenged for the win until the very end.

Poor shooting put Princeton in an early deficit, down by nine, 14-5 at 12:17. The Tigers shot 2-for-10 up until that point while the Commodores were shooting 6-for-9 and had eight rebounds to Princeton's three.

Sophomore Kate Miller seemed to spark Princeton's defensive effort when she grabbed a steal and went down for a fast-break layup and was fouled for a three-point play to get within six, 14-8.

Following the effort the Tigers started to explode defensively. Junior Laura Johnson got a block, sophomore Lauren Polansky forced a jump ball and senior Krystal Hill grabbed a steal. With that the Tigers started to chip away at the score. Princeton went on a 10-5 run over the next 4:15, to make it a three-point game, 23-20 with 4:42 to play.

Stephanie Holzer would hit two free throws before Edwards washed away those two points with a layup. Sophomore Niveen Rasheed would hit a jumper with help from sophomore Meg Bowen at 2:27 to make it a one-point game, 25-24.

During the next 2:27 Princeton had a number of chances to take the lead, but shot 0-for-3. Princeton also didn't allow Vandy to expand on its lead holding it to 0-for-4 shooting. Holzer would shoot a long ball for two at the buzzer to give the 'Dores a 29-26 lead headed into the locker room.

Hannah Tuomi and Jence Rhoads added to Vanderbilt's lead with buckets to start the second, 33-26. The teams then traded threes, with senior Addie Micir draining both for Princeton. Rasheed would have a three-point play at 16:16 to get Princeton back within four, 39-35.

Two minutes later Princeton remained down by four points before Tiffany Clarke hit a jumper to put the 'Dores ahead by six, 43-47.

Micir sank her third three-pointer of the half and Rasheed followed up with a basket in the paint to put the Tigers back within one, 43-32 with 13 minutes to play, forcing Vanderbilt to call a timeout. Rasheed would put back a backdoor pass from Miller at 11:59 to give Princeton its first lead of the game, 44-43.

Vanderbilt went on a 10-0 run for the next 2:18 with Tuomi scoring six of those 10 points to make it a 53-44 game.

Princeton held strong and responded with an 11-4 run. Micir would hit her fourth three, and Bowen and Rasheed would each score four points to bring the game back to two, 57-55 with 5:47 to play.

Vanderbilt regained a 10-point lead, 67-57 at 2:57 thanks to a 10-2 run. Princeton never gave up answering with an 8-1 run to make it a three-point game, 68-65 with 1:20 on the clock.

With 40 seconds left, Vanderbilt held the three-point lead, 71-68. A free throw by Rhoads made it a two-possession game with 30 seconds to play. Getting the rebound on a missed free throw by Rhoads, Princeton ran down the court and desperately tried to get a basket, shooting 0-for-3 in the next 20 seconds. Allgood would foul Holzer with eight ticks on the clock to try to get Princeton the ball back. Holzer made both of her shots but Princeton turned the ball over with four seconds left and the clock ran out.

Micir was named to the All-Tournament team for her efforts this weekend. Today she matched her career best with six three-point baskets en route to scoring a season-high 20 points. Rasheed added 15 points, six rebounds and four assists, while Edwards contributed 14 points and six rebounds. The Tigers shot 44.6 percent from the floor, 47.1 percent from long range and missed just one their 11 free throws.
