Eye on the Tigers

Princeton improved to 4-2 on the season after a 68-50 win over Delaware on Wednesday night. Three players are in double figures in scoring led by the 2010 Ivy League Rookie of the Year Niveen Rasheed. Rasheed is scoring 15.2 points per game and also leads the team on the glass with 8.5 rebounds per game. She can also set up her teammates with a team-high 20 assists to go along with a team-best 14 steals. Senior co-captain Addie Micir adds 13.8 points per game. She has hit six three-pointers in each of the last two games, a career best. In addition to her 46.9 three-point shooting percentage, Micir has gone 6-for-6 from the free-throw line. Junior Devona Allgood puts back 11.8 points per game and is second on the team in rebounds with 6.7 boards per game. She also leads the team in blocks with nine. As a team Princeton is averaging 66.0 points per game and shooting a clip of 40.7 percent from the field. The Tigers are 71.6 percent from the free-throw line and 37.0 percent from long range.

The Princeton/Rider Series

Princeton leads the all-time series with Rider, 19-8. The Tigers have won the last two meetings including an 83-57 victory last season.

Scouting the Broncs

Rider is seeking its first win of the season after starting off 0-5. The Broncs most recently fell to FDU 77-50, a week after dropping a 60-45 game to Penn. Sophomore Caitlin Bopp leads the team in scoring and in rebounds with 8.4 and 10.8, respectively. She has a team-high 15 steals to go along with seven blocks and three assists. Sheree Lightbourne adds 8.3 points per game, while Ali Heller chips in 7.8. Sarah Homan is second on the team in boards with 4.6 per game while leading the Broncs in blocks with nine.

Rider is averaging 43.4 points per game and shooting 27.2 percent from the field. They are 23.4 percent from long range and 54.3 percent from the free-throw line. Rider pulls down 35.2 rebounds per game, a -7.2 rebounding margin.

Mad for Micir

Addie Micir picked up three accolades on Monday, Nov. 29. She was named the Ivy League co-Player of the Week, the ECAC co-Player of the Week and the GoPrincetonTigers.com Athlete of the Week. She led Princeton to a 1-1 record at the Vanderbilt Tournament, stunning the USC and nearly knocking off No. 22/24 Vanderbilt. Micir scored both free throws with 5.0 seconds left to lift Princeton the 60-59 win over USC. She finished the game with 10 points, two rebounds, two assists and a steal against the Trojans, a team receiving votes in both national polls. The Tigers nearly defeated the Commodores, falling 74-68, after battling back from a 10-point deficit to take the lead in the second half. With 40 seconds to play Princeton has down by just three. Micir led the team in scoring with a season-high 20 points. She shot 6-for-13 from long range, matching her career best of six three-pointers in the game, but this time all six game in a single half. Micir added three rebounds, one assist, one block and one steal. Micir was named to the five-member All-Tournament team for her efforts this weekend.

Regional Rewards

Addie Micir was named the ECAC co-Player of the Week on Monday, Nov. 29. She earned the award along with Georgetown's Sugar Rodgers. The award is presented weekly by the nation's largest athletic conference of 300 member institutions, selecting among conference's players of the week. Essentially, Micir and Rodgers were the best players in the region as the ECAC member schools range from Maine to North Carolina to Illinois. Micir finished her weekend at the Vanderbilt Tournament averaging 15 points, hitting eight three-pointers, six against Vanderbilt, and going 4-for-4 from the free throw line, in addition to five rebounds, three assists, two steals and a block.

She's Got It

Niveen Rasheed was named the Ivy League Player of the Week on Monday, Nov. 22. On Thursday at Rutgers, Rasheed scored 14 points and added seven rebounds against the Scarlet Knights, who received votes in both the preseason AP Poll and ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll. She added three steals and one assist. Rasheed recorded her first double-double of the season in Princeton's 69-52 win over Lehigh, then ranked No. 18 in the CollegeInsider.com Mid Major Top 25. The victory halted Lehigh's 33-game home win streak as Princeton is the first team to win at Stabler Arena since the 2007-08 season. Rasheed scored 13 points and added 10 rebounds. She also led the team in steals with four and in assists with four. Rasheed finished the week with 27 points, 17 rebounds, seven steals and five assists.

It's All Good

Junior Devona Allgood was named the Ivy League Player of the Week on Monday, Nov. 15. Allgood shares the honor with Harvard's Brogan Berry. Allgood led Princeton in scoring as the Tigers opened the season with a 78-37 win over Fairleigh Dickinson on Saturday, Nov. 13. The junior center scored 20 points, just one point shy of her career best. In addition she added seven rebounds, three blocks, three steals and one assist coming in 24 minutes of play.

Nash - What?

Princeton went 1-1 at the Vanderbilt Tournament during the Thanksgiving week. Senior Addie Micir scored both free throws with 5.0 seconds left to lift Princeton the 60-59 win over USC, a team at the time was receiving votes in both national polls. It marked the program's first ever win against a Pac-10 team. The Tigers faced the host school in the championship game. The Commodores, who are unbeaten in their 12-year history of their Thanksgiving Tournament, is the first ranked opponent Princeton has played this season. The Tigers nearly defeated the Commodores, falling 74-68, after battling back from a 10-point deficit to take the lead in the second half. With 40 seconds to play Princeton has down by just three.

Picking on the Pac-10

Princeton's 60-59 win over USC on Friday, Nov. 26 at the Vanderbilt Tournament marked the program's first win over a Pac-10 team. The Tigers are now 1-5 against the conference from the West Coast

Down But Not Out

Princeton has battled back from double-digit deficits twice this season to make it a game until the very end. The Tigers were down by as much 15 to Rutgers in the second half, before battling back to take the lead with 6:24 on the clock. Holding the lead with for the final minute, Rutgers hit a jumper with 4.3 seconds to win the one-point game, 54-53. Princeton was down by as much as nine to Vanderbilt but came back to take the lead with 11:59 to play in the game. Nine minutes later, Princeton found themselves in a 10-point hole with 2:57 remaining in the game, but quickly made it a three-point game. With 40 second to play it was a one-possession game, before Vanderbilt scored three free-throws to win 74-68.

The Fine Five

Princeton returns its entire starting line-up this season and hasn't changed it's starting rotation this season. This season they have scored 309 of the squad's 396 points for 78.0 percent of the points. Last year Princeton's starting five accounted for 74.8 percent of the team's points, scoring 1535 of 2051.

That Was a Close One

Three of Princeton's five games this season have been decided by six or fewer points, with two being one-points games. The Tigers fell to Rutgers by one, defeated USC by one and lost to Vanderbilt by just six. Princeton's other three victories were decided by 17 points (Lehigh), 18 points (Delaware) and 41 points (FDU).

All About the Boards

Princeton is 4-0 when outrebounding its opponents or rebounds are even. When the opponent has more rebounds, Princeton hasn't won a game, going 0-2. The Tigers average 39.0 rebounds per game, a +3.3 margin over its opponents.

December Digits

Princeton will play eight games during the final month of the calendar year. Last season, the squad went 6-1, the best record the squad has had in program history. The previous best was during the 1974-75 season when the team went 7-2. So far the Tigers are 1-0 during the month, starting off with an 18-point victory at Delaware.

Honey I'm Home

Princeton is in the middle of a 10-game home winning streak, dating back to Dec. 12, 2009. The Tigers set a record for wins at home last season going 12-1 on its home court. Princeton's last loss at home was its only loss at home last year, a 60-50 game to Rutgers.

From the Boss

After Delaware...

"It's our third game in six days, so we knew we would have to dig deep. We needed to be better on the defensive end, to defend without fouling and finish with a block out so that we could push the pace offensively. This game showed us that we still have a lot of work to do."

After Vanderbilt...

"We use the month of November to find out who we can be. The way the team competes, the way they are willing to get better in practice and the way they are willing to make adjustments in game, has shown to be our foundation. We came here to win two and we made a top-25 team, in its home gym, make really big shots to beat us. So we just keep trying to get better."

Vanderbilt's Coach Balcomb after playing Princeton...

"They turned it up. I like to give the other team credit when credit is due. I think they're a very good team. I think they're extremely well coached. They beat USC for a reason. We didn't take them lightly and they were ready to play with a lot of confidence. We came out real strong with a lot of energy on our home court and then they made a run and they stepped it up. They played that way for the rest of the game and maintained it."

After USC...

"I've said it over and over again from the very beginning, I love the fight of this team. After the heartbreaker losing at the buzzer at Rutgers last week, I'm so proud that we were able to pull this one out. My team never stopped competing, they stayed composed and executed when we needed it most. We were a stop or a score away from beating Rutgers a week ago. This time we got what we needed. It was a gutsy performance and a total team win. I couldn't be prouder of them or happier for them."

November Numbers

Princeton finished off the month of November with a 3-2 record. Last season, Princeton set a program record for the most wins during the month of November, going 4-1.

Open Sesame

All-time Princeton is 19-21 in season openers including this season's 78-37 win over FDU. The Tigers have won the last three season openers, and is 6-4 in the last 10 years.

Preseason Prediction

Princeton was selected to win the Ivy League again this season in the 2010 Ivy League Preseason Media/SID Poll. The Tigers were nearly the unanimous first-place selection with 135 points and 16 first-place votes. Harvard received one first-place vote and 115 points as the runner-up. Dartmouth was picked third with 96 points, followed by Yale with 84, Columbia with 73, Brown with 50, Cornell with 39 and Penn with 19.

O Captain! My Captain!

The team has selected its two seniors to be team captains this season. Krystal Hill and Addie Micir were announced as captains at the end-of-year banquet in the spring of 2010.

Hey Rookie

Coach Banghart and her staff have brought in three newcomers as the Class of 2014. Joining the Tigers are local forward Kristen Helmstetter (Bridgewater, N.J./Bridgewater-Raritan), and guards Nicole Hung (Los Angeles, Calif./Harvard Westlake) and Alex Rodgers (Mouth of Wilson, Va./Oak Hill Academy). HoopGurlz ranked both Hung and Rodgers. Below are their ranks below in comparison to Niveen Rasheed who was ranked last season.

Nicole Hung - Scouts Grade: 90 - Position Rank: 29

Alex Rodgers - Scouts Grade: 80 - Position Rank: 109
compare

Niveen Rasheed - Scouts Grade: 90 - Position Rank: 20

We Are The Champions

Princeton won the Ivy League in 2009-10, the program's eighth title. The team won five times in the 1970 and 80s prior to the NCAA Tournament. The Tigers earned a share of the title in 1999 and 2006 but lost the playoff game both years to Dartmouth. It marks the first time Princeton won the title outright since 1978.

Can They Go All The Way?

Princeton went undefeated in the Ivy League last season becoming one of six teams to go undefeated in Ivy League play. Harvard did so in 2002-03 and 96-97 and Penn was undefeated in 2000-01. Dartmouth went 7-0 in 1980-81, Yale went 7-0 in 1979-80. Princeton is in the middle of a 19-game winning streak in the Ivy League that dates back to Feb. 27, 2009.

Going Dancing

Princeton made its first ever NCAA Tournament appearance in 2010. The team became a varsity sport in 1972 with the NCAA Tournament beginning a decade later in 1982. The Tigers fell to St. John's in the Tallahassee first round 65-47.

We're on the Air

Live audio broadcasts are available for almost every Princeton women's basketball game this season, with Derek Jones calling the action. All home games will be webcast via GoPrincetonTigers.tv for registered users. Packages are available for purchase on a monthly, semi-annual or annual subscription. Live stats will also be available for all home games, and most away games. Links will be available on the women's basketball schedule page.

Not Just a Dot Com

Princeton fans now have many ways to follow their teams. Besides www.GoPrincetonTigers.com, fans can check out the Tigers' TV site, www.GoPrincetonTigers.tv for various types of videos including: interviews with student-athletes and coaches, alumni profiles, game highlights, etc. You can also check out TigerBlog, the official blog of Princeton Athletics, that gives fans a different take on our teams; and TigerCast, a weekly podcast featuring Princeton coaches and student-athletes.

Wednesdays on the Web

Each Wednesday during the season a video bio/interview will be released on GoPrincetonTigers.tv. Check out the Web each Wednesday to get to know each of our 13 Tigers a bit better.

Through the Eyes of the Tigers

The Princeton women's basketball team has a new Web site feature for the 2010-11 season, entitled Through the Eyes of the Tigers. Every other Tuesday a different player on the team will give you an inside look at what's been going on lately with the team. From practice, conditioning, team activities, classes, etc.

Follow Us on Facebook & Twitter

Princeton women's basketball has a fan page on Facebook called "Princeton Women's Basketball Alumni". In what started as a women's basketball alumni page, the page is now open to friends and fans of the basketball program. Coach Banghart also has her own Twitter page. Follow Coach at <http://twitter.com/coachbanghart>

The Coming Attractions

Princeton will play its next three games at Jadwin Gym, a nice break after playing five straight away games. Next up for the Tigers is a game with Navy on Friday, Dec. 10 at 7 p.m.

GAME #1

FDU 37 AT PRINCETON 78

PRINCETON, N.J. (11/13/10) - It was a banner night at Jadwin Gym for the Princeton women's basketball team as the Tigers defeated Fairleigh Dickinson 78-37 in the 2010-11 season opener.

Prior to the game the team unveiled its first NCAA Tournament banner after going 26-3 in 2009-10 and earning the Ivy League's automatic bid with a perfect 14-0 mark.

Princeton played all 13 members of the team with 12 players scoring. Three players were in double digits led by junior Devona Allgood's 20 points. She added seven rebounds, three blocks, three steals and one assist coming in 24 minutes of play. Sophomore Niveen Rasheed added 14 points, eight rebounds, four assists and one steal. Senior Addie Micir scored 12 points, hitting four three pointers and chipping in three assists, two steals and a rebound. Princeton shot 42.6 percent from the floor and missed just two of its 17 free throws.

Esther Wallace led the Knights with 13 points, while adding five rebounds and two blocks. Jasmrya Saunder had a team-best six rebounds and four steals while scoring five points. Mariyah Laury chipped in six points. As a team FDU shot 26 percent from the floor and 58.8 percent from the line.

The Tigers grabbed a 10-point lead, 19-9, at 12:48. During that time Allgood scored eight of those 19 points with Micir draining two of her four three pointers. Princeton continued to find the net scoring the next six points to make it 25-9 with a little more than nine minutes to play in the half.

The Knights were able to make it an 11-point game on three occasions including at the 1:55 mark of the first. However the Tigers would close out the first half on a 9-0 run to head into the locker room with a 39-20 lead.

Princeton's run wasn't over yet as the Tigers came out in the second and scored 17 straight points to go up 56-20 at 15:12.

A three-point basket by Alannah Driscoll-Sbar ended the drought for FDU at 12:58.

The Knights would only get within 30 points during the remainder of the game with came around the 10-minute mark. Back up by 36 points with 1:41 to play Princeton finished scoring the last seven points to wrap up the game 78-37.

Princeton will be on the road for the next five games first stopping off at Rutgers on Thursday, Nov. 18 for 7:30 p.m.

GAME #2

PRINCETON 53 AT RUTGERS 54

The banner of Hall-of-Fame coach Vivian Stringer looms over the court at the Lewis Brown Athletic Center, and the real-life version is still doing business on the home side bench. Clearly, this is not a place where visitors go home often with victories.

Two years ago to the day, after her team was a 48-point afterthought on this court. Courtney Banghart looked around and said that she'd back. She just didn't realize it would sting even more the second time around.

Khadijah Rushdan knocked down a jump shot with a 4.4 seconds left to give Rutgers a 54-53 win over Princeton in an early-season thriller in front of 2,518 at the RAC. Princeton rallied from 15 points back in the second half to take a lead down the stretch before Rushdan broke the Tigers' hearts.

The loss was Princeton's 14th straight to the Scarlet Knights, with the last Princeton win back in 1978. Rutgers improved to 104-16 in the last nine seasons at home.

Among those 104 wins was an 83-35 win over Princeton exactly two years ago.

That loss two years ago left Banghart at 8-24 in her young coaching career. Since then, she is 40-7, and her team is 22-2 since a 10-point loss to the Scarlet Knights a year ago, when she led Princeton to a 14-0 Ivy record and the first NCAA tournament bid in school history.

This year, Princeton came in off a 41-point win over FDU in its opener, while Rutgers lost to California by nine and No. 2 Stanford by 13 to open its season.

Rutgers led 35-22 at the half and 39-24 with 18 minutes to go before Princeton turned its game up on both ends. It took four minutes to get the lead under double digits and then just three more for Princeton to get its first lead at 42-41.

It would go back-and-forth from there with eight lead changes down the stretch, and Princeton would take a 53-52 lead on the seventh of those, when Lauren Edwards scored with 1:13 left.

The Tigers would get a stop after that, but the final sequence was set up when Niveen Rasheed's jumper hit the rim and bounded to the floor, where a mad scramble ensued. A held ball would have favored Princeton at that point, but the officials ruled that Chelsey Lee of Rutgers had possession and had called for a timeout before the ball was tied up.

As a result, the Knights had a chance to win the game, and Rushdan took full advantage, swishing a mid-range shot with 4.4 to play. Princeton was unable to get a shot off after that before the horn.

Rasheed led Princeton with 14 points and added seven rebounds, while Edwards and Addie Micir had 11 each. Devona Allgood had eight points and eight rebounds, and Kate Miller came off the bench to spark the comeback with seven points while drawing two key charges.

Rushdan led RU with 13. Rutgers shot 52% for the first half while making 4 of 5 three-pointers, but Princeton held the Knights to 23% shooting and 0 for 4 on three-pointers in the second half.

Princeton shot 32% in the first half and 45% in the second half, but the Tigers came away with 12 offensive rebounds and nine second-chance points after intermission.

Rutgers now leads the series with the Tigers either 15-1 or 15-3, depending on whether two early 1970s games against Douglass are counted. There is no disputing the current series streak, which now stands at 14 for the Scarlet Knights.

Of those 14 runs, six have been by at least 20 points and four have been by at least 40. The Scarlet Knights scored 110 against Princeton a year after the last Tiger win and 116 the year after that.

Those games - like the 48-point RU win two years ago - are just numbers in the record book now.

The one-point loss this time around stings, but it does show how far the Tigers have come in a short time.

GAME #3

PRINCETON 69 AT LEHIGH 52

BETHLEHEM, Pa. (11/21/10) - Lehigh's 33-game home winning streak is over. The Princeton women's basketball team delivered the Mountain Hawks their first loss at Stabler Arena since the 2007-08 season with a 69-52 game.

Four players were in double digits, led by sophomore Niveen Rasheed's first double-double of the season with 13 points and 10 rebounds. She added four steals and four assists. Juniors Devona Allgood and Laura Johnson and senior Addie Micir had 12 points apiece. Allgood added six rebounds, four steals, three assists and two blocks. Sophomore Lauren Polansky chipped in six rebounds, two steals and two points, junior Lauren Edwards had nine points, six rebounds and three assists.

Princeton took a seven-point lead 9-2 five minutes into the game, but an 8-0 Lehigh run over the next two minutes gave the Mountain Hawks a one-point lead, 10-9.

The teams would exchange leads five times over the next six minutes before a Laura Johnson three-pointer at 7:31 gave Princeton a two-point lead it wouldn't relinquish, sending the Tigers on a 20-5 run over the next five minutes.

Down by 14, 38-24, Lehigh would shoot 4-for-4 from the line and wasn't allowed a field goal for the final 3:41, to close out the half with a 10-point deficit on its home court.

The Tigers continued to build on their lead with freshman Nicole Hung giving Princeton a 20-point edge on a jumper at 7:34. Lehigh went on an 8-0 run over the next 1:23 to get within 14, 61-47, with just under six minutes to play. It would be as close as the Mountain Hawks would get as Princeton would close out the half on an 8-5 run for the 69-52 final score.

Of Lehigh's nine baskets from the field in the second half, five were three-pointers.

The Hun School product Emily Gratch paced the Mountain Hawks with 14 points, shooting a perfect 5-for-5 from the field. She added three steals and three blocks. Leading scorer Erica Prosser added 11 points, five rebounds and a team-high seven assists. Leading the team under the basket was Courtney Dentler who pulled down seven boards, while adding seven points and a team-best three blocks. Lehigh shot 41.3 percent from the floor (19-46), 60 percent from the line and 36.4 percent from behind the arc.

Princeton shot 43.3 percent from the floor (29-67), 50 percent from long range and 44.4 percent from the free-throw line. The Tigers outrebounded the opponent 43-28.

The Tigers improve to 2-1 on the season and will play in the Vanderbilt Tournament over Thanksgiving break to continue their five-game road swing. First up Princeton will meet with USC on Friday, Nov. 26 at 7 p.m.
