Eye on the Tigers

Princeton improved to 7-2 with a 90-58 win over Lafayette on Monday night, its fourth straight win. Princeton has a +17.4 scoring margin over its opponents, scoring 71.9 and holding teams to 54.4 points per game. The Tigers are shooting 44.5 percent from the floor, 72.9 percent from the free-throw line and 38.2 percent from long range. Princeton ranks tops in the league in seven of 11 statistical categories, including: scoring defense, scoring margin, three-point field goal percentage, rebounding margin, blocked shots, assists and turnover margin. Niveen Rasheed leads all players in scoring and in rebounds. She averages 18.0 points per game and scored a career-high 28 against Lafayette on Monday, scoring 22 points in the first half. Rasheed pulls down 7.6 rebounds per game and leads the team in assists and steals with 28 and 20, respectively. Junior Devona Allgood adds 12.3 points per game and 6.8 rebounds per game. She has a team-best 13 blocks and has 14 steals. Senior Addie Micir contributes 11.4 points per game and has hit 26 three-pointers for a 44.1 three-point shooting percentage. She also is 9-for-9 from the free-throw line. Junior Lauren Edwards has missed just five of her 18 free throws this season as she scores 9.8 points per game. She is second on the team in blocks with nine and has 5.3 rebounds per game.

The Princeton/Drexel Series

Princeton has a 5-1 advantage in the all-time series with Drexel. Princeton has won the last four meetings including a 66-49 game last year in Philadelphia. Drexel's last win was a 55-48 game in 1984.

Scouting the Dragons

Drexel enters Friday's game with a 6-1 overall record. The Dragons are on five days of rest after defeating Seton Hall, 66-43 on Sunday. Drexel has only been outside of Philadelphia once this season, and it was the team's lone loss. Drexel fell to Virginia (5-4), 63-54 on Dec. 4. The Dragons have played just two games away from the Daskalakis Center and is 1-1 in those games. Drexel started the year 5-0, the best start in program history. The sport the fourth best scoring defense in the country, holding team's to 48 points. (Princeton ranks 29th), and is second in the nation in three-point percentage at 45.2 (Princeton is 6th). Drexel has a +14.6 scoring margin over its opponents, shooting 44.3 percent from the floor and 76.7 percent from the foul line. Kamile Nacickaite, the CAA Player of the Week, leads the team in scoring with 17.6 points per game, scoring 63 of her 123 points from long range as 50 percent three-point shooter. She is also the team leader in rebounds with 6.7 boards per game. Jasmina Rosseel adds 11.1 points per game also shoots well from behind the arc going 20-for-50. Rosseel leads the team in assists with 24. Tyler Hale and Taylor Wootton have 9.0 and 8.9 points per game, respectively. Wootton leads the team in steals with 11 and blocks with six.

The Princeton/St. Joseph's Series

Princeton is winless in the series with St. Joseph's, which began in 1975. The Hawks have won all eight meetings including an 81-69 victory in the last meeting on Nov. 29, 2006. Seven of those eight games have been by 12 or more points. The lowest margin of victory was an eight-point game, 75-67, in 1982.

Scouting the Hawks

St. Joseph's is 6-3 on the season and hasn't lost at home with a 2-0 mark. The team hasn't played a game this week, its last win coming on Sunday, Dec. 12, a three-point victory over Villanova. The Hawks average 58.1 points per game for a +6 scoring margin. They are shooting 42.6 percent from the floor, 76.7 percent from the foul line and 27.9 percent from long range. Michelle Baker leads the team in scoring with 15.7 points per game, shooting 46.5 percent. She has a team-high 29 assists and 13 steals. Katie Kuester and Kelly Cavallo add 8.9 and 8.7 points per game. Cavallo is the team leader on the glass with 7.3 boards per game and 17 blocks. Kuester shoots 36.8 percent from behind the arc, hitting 14-of-38. Baker and Kuester are not the players to foul, as both shoot over 82 percent. Samir Van Grinsven has a team-best 20 blocks and is second on the team in boards with 4.4 per game.

She's Got It

Niveen Rasheed was named the Ivy League Player of the Week on Monday, Nov. 22. On Thursday at Rutgers, Rasheed scored 14 points and added seven rebounds against the Scarlet Knights, who received votes in both the preseason AP Poll and ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll. She added three steals and one assist. Rasheed recorded her first double-double of the season in Princeton's 69-52 win over Lehigh, then ranked No. 18 in the CollegeInsider.com Mid Major Top 25. The victory halted Lehigh's 33-game home win streak as Princeton is the first team to win at Stabler Arena since the 2007-08 season. Rasheed scored 13 points and added 10 rebounds. She also led the team in steals with four and in assists with four. Rasheed finished the week with 27 points, 17 rebounds, seven steals and five assists.

She's Got It...Again

Niveen Rasheed earned her second Ivy League Player of the Week honor on Monday, Dec. 6. The sophomore led Princeton in scoring as the Tigers went 2-0 on the week and improve to 5-2 on the season. On Wednesday, Rasheed recorded a double-double against previously unbeaten Delaware. She scored 17 points and had a team-high 14 rebounds. She added four assists and three steals in the win. On Sunday, she scored a season-high 22 points in an 87-45 win over Rider. She shot 9-for-14 from the floor and hit all four of her free throws. She added two assists, one block and one steal. Rasheed did all of this in 20 minutes and was taken out of the game to allow her teammates time on the court.

It's All Good

Junior Devona Allgood was named the Ivy League Player of the Week on Monday, Nov. 15. Allgood shares the honor with Harvard's Brogan Berry. Allgood led Princeton in scoring as the Tigers opened the season with a 78-37 win over Fairleigh Dickinson on Saturday, Nov. 13. The junior center scored 20 points, just one point shy of her career best. In addition she added seven rebounds, three blocks, three steals and one assist coming in 24 minutes of play.

Mad for Micir

Addie Micir picked up three accolades on Monday, Nov. 29. She was named the Ivy League co-Player of the Week, the ECAC co-Player of the Week and the GoPrincetonTigers.com Athlete of the Week. She led Princeton to a 1-1 record at the Vanderbilt Tournament, stunning the USC and nearly knocking off No. 22/24 Vanderbilt. Micir scored both free throws with 5.0 seconds left to lift Princeton the 60-59 win over USC. She finished the game with 10 points, two rebounds, two assists and a steal against the Trojans, a team receiving votes in both national polls. The Tigers nearly defeated the Commodores, falling 74-68, after battling back from a 10-point deficit to take the lead in the second half. With 40 seconds to play Princeton has down by just three. Micir led the team in scoring with a season-high 20 points. She shot 6-for-13 from long range, matching her career best of six three-pointers in the game, but this time all six game in a single half. Micir added three rebounds, one assist, one block and one steal. Micir was named to the five-member All-Tournament team for the her efforts this weekend.

Regional Rewards

Addie Micir was named the ECAC co-Player of the Week on Monday, Nov. 29. She earned the award along with Georgetown's Sugar Rodgers. The award is presented weekly by the nation's largest athletic conference of 300 member institutions, selecting among conference's players of the week. Essentially, Micir and Rodgers were the best players in the region as the ECAC member schools range from Maine to North Carolina to Illinois. Micir finished her weekend at the Vanderbilt Tournament averaging 15 points, hitting eight three-pointers, six against Vanderbilt, and going 4-for-4 from the free throw line, in addition to five rebounds, three assists, two steals and a block.

The 1,000-Point Club

Addie Micir is nearing the 1,000-point plateau. She currently has 940 points. Micir averages 11.4 points per game, putting her on tap to reach 1,000 against La Salle on January 4. Seventeen players belong in the 1,000 Point Club, the last member being Meagan Cowher in 2007.

Over 80

Princeton has scored over 80 points twice this season. The first was 87 points against Rider on Dec. 5 and the second was 90 points against Lafayette on Dec. 13. Since 2000, Princeton has scored 80+ points, 22 times. The 2002-03 team had seven 80+ games, while last year's team had four.

Shooter!

Princeton has shot over 50 percent in each of the last games. The Tigers shot 52.6 percent against Navy and 53.6 percent against Lafayette for a +45 scoring margin.

Red Hot Rasheed

Niveen Rasheed scored a career-high 28 points, scoring 22 in the first half alone to lead Princeton to a 90-58 win over Lafayette on Monday. Rasheed's 28 points is the most points scored in a game since Becky Brown had 28 against Penn on Jan. 7, 2006. In addition, her 22 first-half points is the most since Meagan Cowher had 22 in the first half against Columbia on Jan. 13, 2006.

Down But Not Out

Princeton has battled back from double-digit deficits twice this season to make it a game until the very end. The Tigers were down by as much 15 to Rutgers in the second half, before battling back to take the lead with 6:24 on the clock. Holding the lead with for the final minute, Rutgers hit a jumper with 4.3 seconds to win the one-point game, 54-53. Princeton was down by as much as nine to Vanderbilt but came back to take the lead with 11:59 to play in the game. Nine minutes later, Princeton found themselves in a 10-point hole with 2:57 remaining in the game, but quickly made it a three-point game. With 40 second to play it was a one-possession game, before Vanderbilt scored three free-throws to win 74-68.

The Fine Five

Princeton returns its entire starting line-up this season and hasn't changed it's starting rotation this season. This season they have scored 477 of the squad's points for 73.7 percent of the points. Last year Princeton's starting five accounted for 74.8 percent of the team's points, scoring 1535 of 2051.

That Was a Close One

Three of Princeton's five games this season have been decided by six or fewer points, with two being one-points games. The Tigers fell to Rutgers by one, defeated USC by one and lost to Vanderbilt by just six.

All About the Boards

Princeton is 6-0 when outrebounding its opponents or rebounds are even. When the opponent has more rebounds, Princeton is 1-2. The Tigers average 48.7 rebounds per game, a +4.2 margin over its opponents.

Leading the League

Princeton leads the league in nine of 11 categories including: scoring defense, scoring margin, field-goal percentage, three-point field goal percentage, rebounding margin, blocked shots, assists, steals and turnover margin. Princeton is second in the remaining two categories: scoring offensive and free-throw percentage.

Tigers at the Top

Niveen Rasheed leads the Ivy League in scoring with 18.0 points per game. Devona Allgood is the top blocker in the Ancient Eight, averaging 1.44 blocks per game. Addie Micir leads the league in three-pointers made, averaging 2.89 per game. Princeton has three players in the top 10 in scoring, rebounding and assists and makes up four of the top 10 in field goal percentage. See page 7 for more information.

Get Ahead

Princeton has won all six games in which it has been leading at halftime. When Princeton trails at halftime, it has won just once out of three games. The Tigers are 6-1 when leading with five minutes to play, and 1-1 when trailing with five minutes left.

December Digits

Princeton has played four of its eight December games, and is 4-0. Last season, the squad went 6-1, the best record the squad has had in program history. The previous best was during the 1974-75 season when the team went 7-2.

Honey I'm Home

Princeton is in the middle of a 13-game home winning streak, dating back to Dec. 12, 2009. It is the 12th longest home court win streak in the NCAA. The Tigers set a record for wins at home last season going 12-1 on its home court. Princeton's last loss at home was its only loss at home last year, a 60-50 game to Rutgers.

On the Road Again

Princeton is 3-2 on the road this season, defeating Lehigh, USC and Delaware. The Tigers lost to Rutgers and Vanderbilt. Last year, Princeton went 14-1 on the road, with its lone loss at UCLA. Three non-conference road games remain on the schedule: St. Joseph's, Davidson and Wake Forest.

Nash - What?

Princeton went 1-1 at the Vanderbilt Tournament during the Thanksgiving week. Senior Addie Micir scored both free throws with 5.0 seconds left to lift Princeton the 60-59 win over USC, a team at the time was receiving votes in both national polls. It marked the program's first ever win against a Pac-10 team. The Tigers faced the host school in the championship game. The Commodores, who are unbeaten in their 12-year history of their Thanksgiving Tournament, is the first ranked opponent Princeton has played this season. The Tigers nearly defeated the Commodores, falling 74-68, after battling back from a 10-point deficit to take the lead in the second half. With 40 seconds to play Princeton has down by just three.

Picking on the Pac-10

Princeton's 60-59 win over USC on Friday, Nov. 26 at the Vanderbilt Tournament marked the program's first win over a Pac-10 team. The Tigers are now 1-5 against the conference from the West Coast.

Notes from the Boss

"Against Navy we felt that we put together 20 solid minutes defensively, and we were determined to play 40 solid defensive minutes. When we get stops it allows us to generate our transition game, and we're hard to guard over 94 feet."

After Navy...

"Navy is a really good team. They are well coached, they play hard and they have a great point guard. In the first half, we weren't as sharp defensively as we've come to expect from this team. But in the second half, it was a whole different story. We had active hands, active feet and most importantly we talked to each other."

After Rider...

"We share the ball well on offense, all looking to be a threat. It's hard to guard when we push the pace over 94 feet. It's nice to be back home."

After Delaware...

"It's our third game in six days, so we knew we would have to dig deep. We needed to be better on the defensive end, to defend without fouling and finish with a block out so that we could push the pace offensively. This game showed us that we still have a lot of work to do."

After Vanderbilt..

"We use the month of November to find out who we can be. The way the team competes, the way they are willing to get better in practice and they way they are willing to make adjustments in game, has shown to be our foundation. We came here to win two and we made a top-25 team, in its home gym, make really big shots to beat us. So we just keep trying to get better."

Vanderbilt's Coach Balcomb after playing Princeton...

"They turned it up. I like to give the other team credit when credit is due. I think they're a very good team. I think they're extremely well coached. They beat USC for a reason. We didn't take them lightly and they were ready to play with a lot of confidence. We came out real strong with a lot of energy on our home court and then they made a run and they stepped it up. They played that way for the rest of the game and maintained it. "

"I've said it over and over again from the very beginning, I love the fight of this team. After the heartbreaker losing at the buzzer at Rutgers last week, I'm so proud that we were able to pull this one out. My team never stopped competing, they stayed composed and executed when we needed it most. We were a stop or a score away from beating Rutgers a week ago. This time we got what we needed. It was a gutsy performance and a total team win. I couldn't be prouder of them or happier for them."

Ranking in the Mid-Major

Princeton is ranked No. 4 by CollegeInsider.com and No. 5 by ESPN, in the organization's mid-major polls this week. Ahead of Princeton in the CollegeInsider poll is No. 1 Green Bay, No. 2 Bowling Green and No. 3 Florida Gulf Coast. And ESPN has No. 1 Xavier, No. 2 Green Bay and No. 3 Bowling Green.

This week's opponent Drexel is ranked No. 17 by College Insider and No. 15 by ESPN.

Rocking the Vote

Princeton is receiving two votes in the USA Today/ESPN Coaches' poll. The Tigers have beaten three squads by 30+ points, knocked off Lehigh to end a 33-game home win streak, ended Delaware's unbeaten streak and topped USC - a team that is also receiving votes. The Tigers two losses were to Vanderbilt by six and Rutgers by one. Princeton received one vote in the preseason poll, marking the first time an Ivy team has earned votes in that poll (Harvard earned votes in the 2002-03 preseason AP Poll).

Current Conference Streaks

Princeton has the third-longest current conference win streak in the nation. Connecticut has the longest, winning its last 40 BIG EAST games. Below is a list of the current conference streaks.

- UConn (BIG EAST) 40
- Stanford (Pac-10) 30
- Princeton (Ivy) 19
- Hartford (America East) 18
- Fresno State (WAC) 18
- Nebraska (Big 12) 18
- Xavier (Atlantic 10) 16
- Gonzaga (West Coast) 16

November Numbers

Princeton finished off the month of November with a 3-2 record. Last season, Princeton set a program record for the most wins during the month of November, going 4-1.

Open Sesame

All-time Princeton is 19-21 in season openers including this season's 78-37 win over FDU. The Tigers have won the last three season openers, and is 6-4 in the last 10 years.

Preseason Prediction

Princeton was selected to win the Ivy League again this season in the 2010 Ivy League Preseason Media/SID Poll. The Tigers were nearly the unanimous first-place selection with 135 points and 16 first-place votes. Harvard received one first-place vote and 115 points as the runner-up. Dartmouth was picked third with 96 points, followed by Yale with 84, Columbia with 73, Brown with 50, Cornell with 39 and Penn with 19.

O Captain! My Captain!

The team has selected its two seniors to be team captains this season. Krystal Hill and Addie Micir were announced as captains at the end-of-year banquet in the spring of 2010.

Hey Rookie

Coach Banghart and her staff have brought in three newcomers as the Class of 2014. Joining the Tigers are local forward Kristen Helmstetter (Bridgewater, N.J./Bridgewater-Raritan), and guards Nicole Hung (Los Angeles, Calif./Harvard Westlake) and Alex Rodgers (Mouth of Wilson, Va./Oak Hill Academy). HoopGurlz ranked both Hung and Rodgers. Below are their ranks below in comparison to Niveen Rasheed who was ranked last season.

- Nicole Hung - Scouts Grade: 90 - Position Rank: 29
- Alex Rodgers - Scouts Grade: 80 - Position Rank: 109
- compare*
- Niveen Rasheed - Scouts Grade: 90 - Position Rank: 20

We Are The Champions

Princeton won the Ivy League in 2009-10, the program's eighth title. The team won five times in the 1970 and 80s prior to the NCAA Tournament. The Tigers earned a share of the title in 1999 and 2006 but lost the playoff game both years to Dartmouth. It marks the first time Princeton won the title outright since 1978.

Can They Go All The Way?

Princeton went undefeated in the Ivy League last season becoming one of six teams to go undefeated in Ivy League play. Harvard did so in 2002-03 and 96-97 and Penn was undefeated in 2000-01. Dartmouth went 7-0 in 1980-81, Yale went 7-0 in 1979-80.

Going Dancing

Princeton made its first ever NCAA Tournament appearance in 2010. The team became a varsity sport in 1972 with the NCAA Tournament beginning a decade later in 1982. The Tigers fell to St. John's in the Tallahassee first round 65-47.

We're on the Air

Live audio broadcasts are available for almost every Princeton women's basketball game this season, with Derek Jones calling the action. All home games will be webcast via GoPrincetonTigers.tv for registered users. Packages are available for purchase on a monthly, semi-annual or annual subscription. Live stats will also be available for all home games, and most away games. Links will be available on the women's basketball schedule page.

Not Just a Dot Com

Princeton fans now have many ways to follow their teams. Besides www.GoPrincetonTigers.com, fans can check out the Tigers' TV site, www.GoPrincetonTigers.tv for various types of videos including: interviews with student-athletes and coaches, alumni profiles, game highlights, etc. You can also check out TigerBlog, the official blog of Princeton Athletics, that gives fans a different take on our teams; and TigerCast, a weekly podcast featuring Princeton coaches and student-athletes.

Wednesdays on the Web

Each Wednesday during the season a video bio/interview will be released on GoPrincetonTigers.tv. Check out the Web each Wednesday to get to know each of our 13 Tigers a bit better.

Through the Eyes of the Tigers

The Princeton women's basketball team has a new Web site feature for the 2010-11 season, entitled Through the Eyes of the Tigers. Every other Tuesday a different player on the team will give you an inside look at what's been going on lately with the team. From practice, conditioning, team activities, classes, etc.

Follow Us on Facebook & Twitter

Princeton women's basketball has a fan page on Facebook called "Princeton Women's Basketball Alumni". In what started as a women's basketball alumni page, the page is now open to friends and fans of the basketball program. Coach Banghart also has her own Twitter page. Follow Coach at <http://twitter.com/coachbanghart>

The Coming Attractions

Princeton will take a week off for the holidays before heading on it flies to North Carolina. The Tigers will visit the home of junior Devona Allgood, as they take on Davidson on Wednesday, Dec. 29 and Wake Forest on Friday, Dec. 31.

GAME #1
FDU 37 AT PRINCETON 78

PRINCETON, N.J. (11/13/10) - It was a banner night at Jadwin Gym for the Princeton women's basketball team as the Tigers defeated Fairleigh Dickinson 78-37 in the 2010-11 season opener.

Prior to the game the team unveiled its first NCAA Tournament banner after going 26-3 in 2009-10 and earning the Ivy League's automatic bid with a perfect 14-0 mark.

Princeton played all 13 members of the team with 12 players scoring. Three players were in double digits led by junior Devona Allgood's 20 points. She added seven rebounds, three blocks, three steals and one assist coming in 24 minutes of play. Sophomore Niveen Rasheed added 14 points, eight rebounds, four assists and one steal. Senior Addie Micir scored 12 points, hitting four three pointers and chipping in three assists, two steals and a rebound. Princeton shot 42.6 percent from the floor and missed just two of its 17 free throws.

Esther Wallace led the Knights with 13 points, while adding five rebounds and two blocks. Jasmrya Saunder had a team-best six rebounds and four steals while scoring five points. Mariyah Laury chipped in six points. As a team FDU shot 26 percent from the floor and 58.8 percent from the line.

The Tigers grabbed a 10-point lead, 19-9, at 12:48. During that time Allgood scored eight of those 19 points with Micir draining two of her four three pointers. Princeton continued to find the net scoring the next six points to make it 25-9 with a little more than nine minutes to play in the half.

The Knights were able to make it an 11-point game on three occasions including at the 1:55 mark of the first. However the Tigers would close out the first half on a 9-0 run to head into the locker room with a 39-20 lead.

Princeton's run wasn't over yet as the Tigers came out in the second and scored 17 straight points to go up 56-20 at 15:12.

A three-point basket by Alannah Driscoll-Sbar ended the drought for FDU at 12:58.

The Knights would only get within 30 points during the remainder of the game with came around the 10-minute mark. Back up by 36 points with 1:41 to play Princeton finished scoring the last seven points to wrap up the game 78-37.

Princeton will be on the road for the next five games first stopping off at Rutgers on Thursday, Nov. 18 for 7:30 p.m.

GAME #2
PRINCETON 53 AT RUTGERS 54

The banner of Hall-of-Fame coach Vivian Stringer looms over the court at the Lewis Brown Athletic Center, and the real-life version is still doing business on the home side bench. Clearly, this is not a place where visitors go home often with victories.

Two years ago to the day, after her team was a 48-point afterthought on this court. Courtney Banghart looked around and said that she'd back. She just didn't realize it would sting even more the second time around.

Khadijah Rushdan knocked down a jump shot with a 4.4 seconds left to give Rutgers a 54-53 win over Princeton in an early-season thriller in front of 2,518 at the RAC. Princeton rallied from 15 points back in the second half to take a lead down the stretch before Rushdan broke the Tigers' hearts.

The loss was Princeton's 14th straight to the Scarlet Knights, with the last Princeton win back in 1978. Rutgers improved to 104-16 in the last nine seasons at home.

Among those 104 wins was an 83-35 win over Princeton exactly two years ago.

That loss two years ago left Banghart at 8-24 in her young coaching career. Since then, she is 40-7, and her team is 22-2 since a 10-point loss to the Scarlet Knights a year ago, when she led Princeton to a 14-0 Ivy record and the first NCAA tournament bid in school history.

This year, Princeton came in off a 41-point win over FDU in its opener, while Rutgers lost to California by nine and No. 2 Stanford by 13 to open its season.

Rutgers led 35-22 at the half and 39-24 with 18 minutes to go before Princeton turned its game up on both ends. It took four minutes to get the lead under double digits and then just three more for Princeton to get its first lead at 42-41.

It would go back-and-forth from there with eight lead changes down the stretch, and Princeton would take a 53-52 lead on the seventh of those, when Lauren Edwards scored with 1:13 left.

The Tigers would get a stop after that, but the final sequence was set up when Niveen Rasheed's jumper hit the rim and bounded to the floor, where a mad scramble ensued. A held ball would have favored Princeton at that point, but the officials ruled that Chelsey Lee of Rutgers had possession and had called for a timeout before the ball was tied up.

As a result, the Knights had a chance to win the game, and Rushdan took full advantage, swishing a mid-range shot with 4.4 to play. Princeton was unable to get a shot off after that before the horn.

Rasheed led Princeton with 14 points and added seven rebounds, while Edwards and Addie Micir had 11 each. Devona Allgood had eight points and eight rebounds, and Kate Miller came off the bench to spark the comeback with seven points while drawing two key charges.

Rushdan led RU with 13. Rutgers shot 52% for the first half while making 4 of 5 three-pointers, but Princeton held the Knights to 23% shooting and 0 for 4 on three-pointers in the second half.

Princeton shot 32% in the first half and 45% in the second half, but the Tigers came away with 12 offensive rebounds and nine second-chance points after intermission.

Rutgers now leads the series with the Tigers either 15-1 or 15-3, depending on whether two early 1970s games against Douglass are counted. There is no disputing the current series streak, which now stands at 14 for the Scarlet Knights.

Of those 14 runs, six have been by at least 20 points and four have been by at least 40. The Scarlet Knights scored 110 against Princeton a year after the last Tiger win and 116 the year after that.

Those games - like the 48-point RU win two years ago - are just numbers in the record book now.

The one-point loss this time around stings, but it does show how far the Tigers have come in a short time.

GAME #3
PRINCETON 69 AT LEHIGH 52

BETHLEHEM, Pa. (11/21/10) - Lehigh's 33-game home winning streak is over. The Princeton women's basketball team delivered the Mountain Hawks their first loss at Stabler Arena since the 2007-08 season with a 69-52 game.

Four players were in double digits, led by sophomore Niveen Rasheed's first double-double of the season with 13 points and 10 rebounds. She added four steals and four assists. Juniors Devona Allgood and Laura Johnson and senior Addie Micir had 12 points apiece. Allgood added six rebounds, four steals, three assists and two blocks. Sophomore Lauren Polansky chipped in six rebounds, two steals and two points, junior Lauren Edwards had nine points, six rebounds and three assists.

Princeton took a seven-point lead 9-2 five minutes into the game, but an 8-0 Lehigh run over the next two minutes gave the Mountain Hawks a one-point lead, 10-9.

The teams would exchange leads five times over the next six minutes before a Laura Johnson three-pointer at 7:31 gave Princeton a two-point lead it wouldn't relinquish, sending the Tigers on a 20-5 run over the next five minutes.

Down by 14, 38-24, Lehigh would shoot 4-for-4 from the line and wasn't allowed a field goal for the final 3:41, to close out the half with a 10-point deficit on its home court.

The Tigers continued to build on their lead with freshman Nicole Hung giving Princeton a 20-point edge on a jumper at 7:34. Lehigh went on an 8-0 run over the next 1:23 to get within 14, 61-47, with just under six minutes to play. It would be as close as the Mountain Hawks would get as Princeton would close out the half on an 8-5 run for the 69-52 final score.

Of Lehigh's nine baskets from the field in the second half, five were three-pointers.

The Hun School product Emily Gratch paced the Mountain Hawks with 14 points, shooting a perfect 5-for-5 from the field. She added three steals and three blocks. Leading scorer Erica Prosser added 11 points, five rebounds and a team-high seven assists. Leading the team under the basket was Courtney Dentler who pulled down seven boards, while adding seven points and a team-best three blocks. Lehigh shot 41.3 percent from the floor (19-46), 60 percent from the line and 36.4 percent from behind the arc.

Princeton shot 43.3 percent from the floor (29-67), 50 percent from long range and 44.4 percent from the free-throw line. The Tigers outrebounded the opponent 43-28.

The Tigers improve to 2-1 on the season and will play in the Vanderbilt Tournament over Thanksgiving break to continue their five-game road swing. First up Princeton will meet with USC on Friday, Nov. 26 at 7 p.m.

GAME #4

USC 59 vs. PRINCETON 60

NASHVILLE (11/26/10) - With her team up 59-58, USC's Cassie Harbets fouled the wrong Princeton basketball player - the team's best free-throw shooter, senior captain Addie Micir. Micir hit both of her free throws with five seconds left to give the Tigers a 60-59 victory over the Trojans on Friday, Nov. 26 at Memorial Gymnasium in the second game of the Vanderbilt Tournament.

USC would fumble down the court due to high pressure from guard Laura Johnson and didn't have enough time to get a decent shot off as Princeton celebrated on the opposite end of the court.

Princeton will play in the championship game against the host school Vanderbilt on Sunday, Nov. 28 at 2 p.m. The game will be webstreamed, with live audio and live stats available. Check back tomorrow for links as well as video footage of the win.

It was a back and forth affair in the first half. The lead changed hands six times and was tied four times. USC scored first but Princeton would take it's first lead on a Niveen Rasheed three-point play at 15:38, 5-4.

USC would regain the lead on a pair of free throws by Christina Marinacci and would go up by four, 11-7, before Princeton battled back to take the lead 14-13 when Rasheed stole the ball and ran down the court for a jumper in the lane.

USC scored the next five points, 18-14, but Princeton answered with seven straight with Rasheed scoring twice and Micir draining a three, to give the Tigers their largest lead of the half, 21-18.

The Trojans went on a 14-3 over the next 1:16 to take the 32-24 lead with 2:35 to play. Sophomore center Meg Bowen added two baskets to inch Princeton within four to head into the locker room with a 32-28 score.

At the end of the half both teams had committed eight turnovers, but it was the Tigers that capitalized getting 10 points off of them compared to USC's six.

The Women of Troy started the second half on a 9-5 run to regain an eight-point lead, 41-33 at 15:59. Rasheed scored the game's next six points, going 4-for-4 from the free-throw line and adding a jumper to make it a two-point game, 41-39 at 13:48. A pair of free throws by Harbets ended Rasheed's run but Bowen drew a charge on a jumper in the paint and made good on the three-point play to make it a one-point game, 43-42 with 11 minutes to play.

Ashley Corral and Marinacci teamed up to score the next six points to make it a 49-42 game. A free-throw by Lauren Edwards, followed by a basket by Rasheed after getting the offensive rebound on Edward's second free throw, and a basket in the paint by Allgood put Princeton back within two with seven minutes left.

A minute later the Tigers remained down by two, 53-51, before Marinacci and Harbets added four points. Princeton's Allgood responded going 2-for-2 and adding a basket to make it a 57-55 game with a little more than three minutes left.

Harbets followed with a basket before Edwards earned a steal and raced down the court for a layup. Harbets fouled Rasheed, who made the back end of the two shots to get Princeton within one with 1:08 to play.

The Trojans missed two three-pointers with Edwards getting the second rebound to give Princeton possession with 26 seconds. Bringing the ball down the court, Rasheed drove to the basket but missed the shot with Kari LaPlante getting the defensive rebound and a chance at two baskets as Rasheed was called for the foul.

LaPlante missed both shots and Johnson got the defensive board with 14 seconds to play.

Key to Princeton's success in the second half was its rebounding. USC had a 25-17 edge in boards in the first half, the most rebounds the Tigers have allowed in a half this season. The Tigers outboarded the Trojans 28-20 in the second half. Princeton also got 12 points on second-chance opportunities.

Allgood recorded her first double-double of the season with 12 points and 11 rebounds. Rasheed led the team in scoring with 18 points and had six rebounds, three assists and two steals. Edwards added seven points and 10 rebounds, while Micir contributed 10 points. As a team Princeton shot 32.8 percent from the floor, 80 percent from the line and 26.7 percent from long range.

PRINCETON 68 AT VANDERBILT 74

NASHVILLE (11/28/10) - The Princeton women's basketball team gave No. 22/24 Vanderbilt a game all the way to the end, but it was the Commodores who earned the 74-68 win in the championship game of the Vanderbilt Tournament on Sunday, Nov. 28 at Memorial Gym.

Down by as much as nine, Princeton battled its way back to take the lead midway through the second and continued to answer any scoring runs against the first ranked opponent it has played this season. Down by 10 with less than three minutes to play Princeton made it a three-point game and challenged for the win until the very end.

Poor shooting put Princeton in an early deficit, down by nine, 14-5 at 12:17. The Tigers shot 2-for-10 up until that point while the Commodores were shooting 6-for-9 and had eight rebounds to Princeton's three.

Sophomore Kate Miller seemed to spark Princeton's defensive effort when she grabbed a steal and went down for a fast-break layup and was fouled for a three-point play to get within six, 14-8.

Following the effort the Tigers started to explode defensively. Junior Laura Johnson got a block, sophomore Lauren Polansky forced a jump ball and senior Kristal Hill grabbed a steal. With that the Tigers started to chip away at the score. Princeton went on a 10-5 run over the next 4:15, to make it a three-point game, 23-20 with 4:42 to play.

Stephanie Holzer would hit two free throws before Edwards washed away those two points with a layup. Sophomore Niveen Rasheed would hit a jumper with help from sophomore Meg Bowen at 2:27 to make it a one-point game, 25-24.

During the next 2:27 Princeton had a number of chances to take the lead, but shot 0-for-3. Princeton also didn't allow Vandy to expand on its lead holding it to 0-for-4 shooting. Holzer would shoot a long ball for two at the buzzer to give the 'Dores a 29-26 lead headed into the locker room.

Hannah Tuomi and Jence Rhoads added to Vanderbilt's lead with buckets to start the second, 33-26. The teams then traded threes, with senior Addie Micir draining both for Princeton. Rasheed would have a three-point play at 16:16 to get Princeton back within four, 39-35.

Two minutes later Princeton remained down by four points before Tiffany Clarke hit a jumper to put the 'Dores ahead by six, 43-47.

Micir sank her third three-point of the half and Rasheed followed up with a basket in the paint to put the Tigers back within one, 43-32 with 13 minutes to play, forcing Vanderbilt to call a timeout. Rasheed would put back a backdoor pass from Miller at 11:59 to give Princeton its first lead of the game, 44-43.

Vanderbilt went on a 10-0 run for the next 2:18 with Tuomi scoring six of those 10 points to make it a 53-44 game.

Princeton held strong and responded with an 11-4 run. Micir would hit her fourth three, and Bowen and Rasheed would each score four points to bring the game back to two, 57-55 with 5:47 to play.

Vanderbilt regained a 10-point lead, 67-57 at 2:57 thanks to a 10-2 run. Princeton never gave up answering with an 8-1 run to make it a three-point game, 68-65 with 1:20 on the clock.

With 40 seconds left, Vanderbilt held the three-point lead, 71-68. A free throw by Rhoads made it a two-possession game with 30 seconds to play. Getting the rebound on a missed free throw by Rhoads, Princeton ran down the court and desperately tried to get a basket, shooting 0-for-3 in the next 20 seconds. Allgood would foul Holzer with eight ticks on the clock to try to get Princeton the ball back. Holzer made both of her shots but Princeton turned the ball over with four seconds left and the clock ran out.

Micir was named to the All-Tournament team for her efforts this weekend. Today she matched her career best with six three-point baskets en route to scoring a season-high 20 points. Rasheed added 15 points, six rebounds and four assists, while Edwards contributed 14 points and six rebounds. The Tigers shot 44.6 percent from the floor, 47.1 percent from long range and missed just one of their 11 free throws.

GAME #6

PRINCETON 68 AT DELAWARE 50

NEWARK, Del. (12/11/10) - When the Princeton women's basketball team arrived at the Carpenter Center the game plan on defending unbeaten Delaware changed. Star player Elena Delle Donne was not dressed for the game. The change in game plan didn't faze the Tigers as the ended Delaware's five-game win streak with a 68-50 win.

An illness would keep Delle Donne, a player that scores 41 percent of her team's points averaging 27.4 points per game, on the bench. Sarah Acker would start in her place but couldn't be the offensive threat the team needed.

The Tigers grabbed a six-point lead, 10-4, four minutes into the game before Delaware went on a run. The Blue Hens held the Tigers scoreless for the next five minutes as they scored 10 points to take the 14-10 lead at 12:25.

Addie Micir hit back-to-back threes to regain the lead for Princeton and Niveen Rasheed gave the Tigers the 18-14 lead.

Delaware scored the next three points to make it a one-point game, 18-17, but it would be as close as the Blue Hens would get as the Tigers went on a 15-0 run over that stretch from the final seven minute of the first half and into the second half to take a 33-17 lead.

The Blue Hens would use a number of substitutes in the first half to try to find the right combination but couldn't stop the sharp-shooting Tigers.

The Blue Hens would only get as close as 11 in the second half, as Princeton pushed its lead by as much as 24.

With the wide gap, Princeton was able to get all of its dressed players into the game with each putting in considerable minutes.

Micir hit a career-best six three-pointers for the second straight game, missing just one of her seven shots from behind the arc. She shot 6-for-8 overall to lead the team in scoring with 18 points. Rasheed earned a double-double with 17 points and a team-high 14 rebounds. She added four assists and three steals. Junior Devona Allgood was also in double digits with 13 points, while sophomore Meg Bowen finished the game with a career-high seven rebounds.

Princeton shot 41.1 percent from the floor, 47.4 percent from long range and 65 percent from the line, paced by Rasheed shooting 7-for-8.

The Tigers who entered the game ranked No. 5 in the mid-major poll, outboarded the Blue Hens, ranked No. 10 in the same poll, 41-35.

Danielle Parker led Delaware with a double-double of 14 points and 11 rebounds. Vanessa Kabongo had 12 points and a team-best three assists. Kelsey Buchanan added eight rebounds for the Blue Hens. Delaware shot 36.7 percent from the field, 52 percent from the line and 16.7 percent from long range, making just one of its six three's.

GAME #7 RIDER 45 AT PRINCETON 87

PRINCETON, N.J. (12/5/10) - Sophomore Niveen Rasheed scored a season-high 22 points to lead the Princeton women's basketball team to an 87-45 win over Rider on Sunday, Dec. 5.

All 13 players got in the game for the Tigers with the bench contributing 36 of the team's 87 points. Princeton shot 11-for-11 from the free-throw line and 53.5 percent from long range, hitting eight three's. Overall the Tigers shot 48.6 percent, in their first home game since the season opener, nearly a month ago. Rider shot 29.5 percent overall and was 75 percent from the line. The squad was 0-for-8 from behind the arc.

Caitlin Bopp, Rider's leading scorer found herself in foul trouble early, picking up her second foul at 15:49 and her third with 2:31 to play in the first half. She would finish the game with just six points. MyNesha McKenzie and Sarah Homan both had nine points to lead the Broncos offensively. McKenzie also had nine rebounds to lead the team on the glass.

Princeton grabbed an 8-0 lead to start the game, prompting Rider to call a timeout. Bopp gave her team its first basket at 16:43 before Princeton's Lauren Polansky drained a three. The teams would trade baskets to make it 15-6 at 13:46 before Princeton went on a 9-3 run to take a 17-point lead, 28-11, with 7:11 remaining. Five minutes later a three pointer by Nicole Hung gave Princeton a 22-point lead. Rider had a 5-0 run over the next two minutes, but another three by Hung at 1:28 pushed the Tigers out ahead by 20+ points once again. Princeton would take a 20-point lead, 42-22, into the locker room.

The Tigers were unstopable in the second half, opening up with a 12-0 run to make it a 54-22 game at 16:06.

A basket by Alicia Hall at 14:13 brought her team within 30 but it would be as close as it would get as Princeton pushed its lead to as much as 42 to end the game, 87-45.

Junior post Devona Allgood was second on the team in scoring with 12 points, while adding seven rebounds. Junior guard Laura Johnson had 10 points, five rebounds, two steals, two assists and one block. Junior forward Lauren Edwards led the team under the basket with eight rebounds, while freshman guard Alex Rodgers had six.

As a team Princeton had 21 assists on 34 baskets, to go along with nine steals and six blocks. The Tigers had 49 rebounds to Rider's 33.

GAME #8 NAVY 61 AT PRINCETON 74

PRINCETON, N.J. (12/10/10) - The Princeton women's basketball team shot 61.5 percent in the first half, but led Navy by just three at halftime. It was only a matter of time before the Tigers would start to pull away and a strong defensive showing in the second half led to a 74-61 victory.

Coincidentally, the last time Princeton shot that well in a half was November 2009 when the Tigers earned a 77-45 win over another Patriot League team, American. Despite the sharp shooting, Princeton struggled defensively against Navy, as the Mids hit six three-pointers in the first half and was 57.7 percent from the floor overall.

Princeton would hold Navy to 28.1 percent (9-for-32) shooting in the second half and gave up just one three-pointer. Princeton jumped out to a 10-4 lead three minutes into the game and reached a nine-point advantage at 12:44. Navy went on a 7-0 run to make it a two-point game on a three-pointer by Cassie Consedine at 8:39.

Two minutes later Princeton had a 29-24 lead before Navy went on a 10-2 run to turn the tide and give the Mids a 34-31 lead with 3:01 to play in the first half.

A pair of free throws by Niveen Rasheed put Princeton back within one, 34-33. On the other end Angela Myers shot 1-for-2 from the line. Rasheed would get the rebound on the missed opportunity and ran down for a layup to tie the game 35-35 at 2:14.

Devona Allgood would score back-to-back buckets and Lauren Edwards had a fast break basket to give Princeton a 41-35 lead. Myers would drain her third three of the half at the buzzer to set the halftime score at 41-38.

A basket by Consedine started the second half and made it a 41-40 game, but Rasheed scored two from the line and Edwards added a layup to give Princeton a 45-40 lead. The teams would trade baskets over the next five minutes to make it 49-44.

A layup by Audrey Bauer at 14:38 would be Navy's last basket for the next 8:41, as Princeton held Navy scoreless from the field and took off. The Tigers went on a 16-2 run to build a 17-point lead, 65-48.

Consedine ended the drought for the Mids at 5:52 but the Tigers continued to attack to go ahead by as much as 20 on a three by Krystal Hill at 2:15.

Navy would answer back with a three, and Alix Membreno would score the game's last four points.

Myers led Navy with 21 points and eight rebounds. She dished out four assists and had two steals. Consedine added 14 points and Membreno had 11 off the bench and earned six rebounds. Jade Geif would finish with eight points and seven boards. Navy concluded the game shooting 41.4 percent overall, 60 percent from the line and 38.9 percent from long range.

Pacing the Tigers was Rasheed with 21 points, six rebounds, four steals and four assists. Allgood was also in double figures with 14 points and led the team on the glass with eight rebounds. Edwards chipped in 13 points, four rebounds and three assists. Senior Addie Micir and Hill would each contribute nine points. The Tigers shot a clip of 52.6 percent, shot 45.5 percent from behind the arc and was 9-for-12 from the free-throw line.

Navy falls to 5-5 overall, while Princeton improves to 6-2 overall and extends its home win streak to 12.

GAME #9 LAFAYETTE 58 AT PRINCETON 90

PRINCETON, N.J. (12/13/10) - Sophomore Niveen Rasheed scored a career-high 28 points, scoring 22 in the first half alone to lead the Princeton women's basketball team to a 90-58 win over Lafayette on Monday, Dec. 13.

Rasheed's 28 points is the most points scored in a game since Becky Brown had 28 against Penn on Jan. 7, 2006. In addition, her 22 first-half points is the most since Meagan Cowher had 22 in the first half against Columbia on Jan. 13, 2006. It was the second straight game that the Tigers shot over 50 percent, as Princeton shot 53.6 percent from the field. Rasheed herself shot 11-for-15.

A third of Princeton's points came from the bench, while more than a third came off of Lafayette turnovers, 39 in fact.

In the first half, Lafayette had 11 of its 27 points come via free throws, as the Leopards went 11-for-13 from the line. The sharp free-throw shooting was clutch as Princeton held Lafayette scoreless from the field for more than seven minutes. The Leopards would hit seven free throws during that span.

Princeton began the game on a 17-2 run, with junior Devona Allgood scoring eight of those 17 points. Lafayette was able to cut the lead back to nine, on a 10-4 run at 10:30.

Sophomore Kate Miller and Allgood each scored to take a 13-point lead, 25-12. After Lauren Jackson's layup at 8:35, the Leopards would go cold on the court, not getting another bucket until 1:27. During that span Princeton would go on a 20-9 run with Rasheed scoring nine straight points for the Tigers who held a 47-25.

Rasheed wasn't done yet as she closed out the half scoring five more points to give the Tigers a 52-27 lead at halftime.

The Tigers continued to expand on their lead, taking their largest lead at 11:20, a 38-point advantage.

Allgood finished the night with 14 points, six rebounds, three steals, one block and one assist. Junior Lauren Edwards added 10 points. Sophomore Lauren Polansky led the team in steals and assists with six apiece, while scoring two and pulling down five boards. Senior Krystal Hill scored seven points and pulled off the prettiest play on Carril Court, with a trick behind the back bounce pass to Rasheed for a lay-in.

Princeton had a 33-29 rebounding advantage, holding the Leopards to just seven offensive boards, all of which came in the second half.

LaKeisha Wright paced the Leopards with 15 points, while Danielle Fiacco had 10 points and led the team on the glass with eight rebounds. Elizabeth Virgin also contributed 10 points, while Lauren Jackson had nine. Overall, Lafayette shot 42.9 percent, 79.2 percent from the free-throw line and 30 percent from long range.

The Leopards drop to 5-6 on the season while Princeton improves to 7-2 overall and extends its home win streak to 13.
