This Week's Storylines

TOURNEY TIME

Princeton returns to the NCAA tournament this weekend as the fourth overall seed. Princeton will host 14th-ranked Stanford in the opening round of regional play. The Princeton/Stanford winner will take on the winner of the Syracuse/Boston College game for a spot in the NCAA final four.

HOW WE GOT HERE

Princeton claimed the Ivy League's automatic bid the NCAA tournament when it defeated Cornell in its second to last Ivy League game of the season. Princeton completed the Ivy season perfectly a week later at Penn.

THE 14TH TIME

Princeton's NCAA tournament appearance is the 14th in school history. Princeton's first NCAA appearance came in 1982. The Tigers went until 1994 before reappearing in the tournament, but have been in 12 of the 15 tournaments since.

TOURNAMENT HISTORY

In its 13 visits to the tournament, Princeton is 14-13 overall. It has reached the semifinals four times and the championship game twice in 1996 and 1998. Princeton defeated Penn State in the first round and fell to Syracuse in quarterfinals in its last visit to the tournament in 2008.

PERFECT SEVEN

Princeton defeated Penn 7-0 last Friday night to cap its 14th perfect 7-0 Ivy League season. The Tigers ran the table in league play for the fourth time in five years and have won 34 of their last 35 Ivy League games.

18TH TITLE

Princeton's Ivy League championship was its 14th title in the last 15 years and its 18th overall. Princeton has won 18 of the 30 Ivy League championships awarded since 1979.

PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Sophomore Katie Reinprecht was a unanimous choice among the Ivy League's coaches in earning her second Ivy League Player of the Year Award. A season ago, she became the first Ivy League freshman to claim Player of the Year honors. Reinprecht was also a unanimous choice for first-team All-Ivy. The League's Player of the Year has

MORE IVY HONORS

A total of nine Tigers received All-Ivy honors this season. In addition to the Reinprecht sisters, senior Kaitlyn Perrelle, sophomore Kathleen Sharkey was and freshman Michelle Cesan earned first team honors. Perrelle earned her third All-Ivy selection and Sharkey was a unanimous first-teamer for the second straight season. Senior Christina Bortz, junior Jennifer King and sophomore Alyssa Pyros were second-team selections and junior Alexandra Douwes was an honorable mention.

IN THE POLLS

Princeton has held down the fourth spot in both the NFHCA Coaches Poll and the NCAA's RPI since it's win over Connecticut in early October. Princeton has been ranked as high as fourth and as low as seventh in the polls this season.

AGAINST THE FIELD

Princeton was 5-1 against tournament teams as it defeated American, Connecticut, Ohio State, Richmond and Syracuse, and fell to national top-seed Maryland.

AGAINST STANFORD

Princeton will host Stanford in the opening game on Saturday morning. The teams did not meet

2009 PRINCETON FIELD HOCKEY

this season but met late in 2008 when the Tigers bested Stanford 8-2 in an NCAA Play-In game held at Princeton. The teams have split their two overall meetings.

LAST SEASON VS. STANFORD

Senior Kaitlyn Perrelle and sophomore Kathleen Sharkey each scored two goals in an 8-2 win over Stanford on Nov. 11, 2009. The Tigers built a 2-0 lead three minutes into the win and never looked back as Princeton played its way into the NCAA tournament field.

AGAINST SYRACUSE

Princeton is 9-3 all-time against Syracuse. The teams have met twice over the past two seasons with the Orange ousting Princeton from the 2008 NCAA tournament with a 3-2 overtime win in the quarterfinals last season. Princeton avenged the loss with a 3-2 overtime win at Syracuse early this season. The teams 1-1 in NCAA tournament games and Princeton leads the series 4-2 at home.

THIS SEASON VS. SYRACUSE

Freshman Michelle Cesan scored late in regulation and sophomore Rachel Neufeld scored the game-winning goal in overtime as Princeton overcame a 2-1 deficit in a 3-2 win on Sept. 6, 2009. Sophomore Katie Reinprecht gave Princeton a 1-0 lead in the game before Syracuse scored two-straight goals. Junior goalkeeper Jennifer King made 10 saves in the win.

AGAINST BOSTON COLLEGE

Princeton and Boston College have met once before with Princeton winning 3-2 in the opening round of the NCAA tournament in the 1997 season at Maryland.

DOMINATING

Princeton's Ivy League season was simply dominant. The Tigers went 7-0 and outscored Ivy opponents 46-5. Princeton shut out three of those opponents. Princeton scored 12 more goals in Ivy play this season than it did in a 7-0 season in 2008.

ON A ROLL

Princeton enters the weekend having won its last seven games. The Tigers have outscored their opponents 34-4 in the five-game stretch.

NATION'S BEST OFFENSE

Princeton leads the nation in scoring, averaging 4.81 goals per game. The Tigers rank second with 12.56 points per game and eighth with 2.94 assists per game.

AROUND THE CORNER

Princeton is averaging 10.06 penalty corners per game this season to rank fourth in the category behind Albany, Syracuse and Yale.

SCORING MORE

Princeton has scored 77 goals this season in 16 games. That total is the fifth highest total in program history, four behind the 84 scored in 1997. Princeton's all-time high is 109 scored in 1996. Princeton's point and assist total of 125 ranks third in the program record books.

INDIVIDUALLY RANKED

Kathleen Sharkey ranks 12th in the nation with 1.06 goals per game and 10th in the nation with 2.63 points per game. Katie Reinprecht ranks 19th in the country with 2.38 points per game.

WINNING GOALS

Kathleen Sharkey has a team-high five game-winning goals this season. Katie Reinprecht has three and Julia Reinprecht has two.

WEEKLY PLAYER AWARDS

Three members of the Tigers have won Ivy League Player of the Week Awards this season. Kathleen Sharkey claimed three awards and Kaitlin Donovan and Katie Reinprecht each won once.

WEEKLY ROOKIE AWARDS

Three members of the Princeton freshman class have won Ivy League Rookie of the Week Awards this season. Michelle Cesan has collected three honors, while Julia Reinprecht and Carrie Diamond each have one award.
